2011 SEASON PREVIEW

While most of America is focused on putting the final touches on their summer, the University of Missouri football team is setting its mind on the 2011 season. The Tigers, who have won 40 games over the last four years (which ranks as 6th-best in the NCAA from 2007-10 among BCS-AQ conference), begin fall camp August 4th as they look to follow up on a 10-3 season from a year ago.

Mizzou has a lot of proven players returning to the fold in 2011, including nine starters on offense, and eight starters on defense. And throw into the mix the fact that one of the nation's top placekickers over the last two years – senior Grant Ressel – is back for his third season, and Tiger fans certainly have a lot to look forward to this fall.

Count Head Coach Gary Pinkel, who will enter his 11th year of prowling the Tiger sideline, as one of those who are eager about the upcoming season.

"I'm excited about this team, there's a lot of seniors, a lot of good players, a lot of guys who are very committed to this program," Pinkel said. "It's exciting to see that and be a part of it. Now, the challenge for us is to make sure our seniors have the best years they've ever had. A year ago, we won 10 games, and most every senior had their best year. That's important if you want to achieve your goals and reach your potential," he said.

As the Tigers take to the field, it comes on the heels of a tough and demanding offseason program which followed the heartbreaking loss to Iowa in the 2010 Insight Bowl. Whether the Tigers, who have been to a school-record six-straight bowl games under Pinkel, win or lose a bowl game, Pinkel's approach is always the same.

"For us, it's always business as usual, I always take a hard-hat approach, let's get back to work," Pinkel said. "I think we've matured and grown as a team, we're faster, stronger, quicker and a lot of the young players, after going through the Winning Edge program we have in place, they understand a little more about the intensity level at which it takes to compete at this level. As far as goals, our goals have not changed since we got here – to win a Big 12 championship, compete for a national championship, and to go to a bowl," he said.

When Pinkel and his staff took over in December of 2000, their biggest challenge was to build the depth to where it would sustain a consistent winner. Even though that goal has been achieved (as the six straight bowls will attest), the work there is never done. However, Pinkel does feel good heading into fall camp about the talent he and his coaches have assembled.

"One of the great things about our football team I think we have more depth at most every position, and that only leads to the competition being greater than it's ever been," Pinkel said. "I think the beauty of how we do things here, unlike a significant number of other places, is that kids get opportunities here, and they know that the best person is going to play, that there's no pecking order. Just because 'Johnnie' has been here, he doesn't have anything handed to him, the guys who deserve the right to play are going to get the job," he said.

With the wealth of talent coming back, it's a pair of early defections to the NFL that most outside observers will focus on – top-10 picks Blaine Gabbert and Aldon Smith. Gabbert (who went #10 overall to Jacksonville) threw for over 3,000 yards in his two seasons as a starter for the Tigers, and would have been a senior in 2011, while Smith (who went #7 overall to San Francisco) terrorized opposing offenses the last two seasons as one of the nation's top defensive ends, and chose to bypass his final two years of eligibility.

With the veteran supporting cast coming back, will that change to focus of Mizzou's spread offense? Not necessarily, but Pinkel also declares that leaning on an effective running game wouldn't be a bad thing for a first-year quarterback.

"In our offense, we throw the football, that's what we do," Pinkel said. "That being said, with all the proven performers we have back at tailback and offensive line, we'll have to see how it goes, we really will make more of those types of decisions when we get into camp. I don't think there's any question about it, with a young quarterback, being able to run the ball well will take a lot of pressure off that position," he added.

OFFENSE

The Tigers have the luxury of returning nine starters on offense, but certainly the two losses are significant. The two people who touched the ball every single play in 2010 – QB Blaine Gabbert and C Tim Barnes – are gone to the next level. But the good news is, everyone else, including a whopping 25 letterwinners with a collective 198 career starts in all, are back, so the cupboard is far from bare.

QUARTERBACK

There's no question that the quarterback is the piston that makes Mizzou's spread offense run, and all eyes were keenly observing the three-man race in the spring between sophomore James Franklin, sophomore Ashton Glaser and redshirt freshman Tyler Gabbert (Blaine's younger brother).

Franklin emerged from the spring as the number one man, and his path to the starting job got less cluttered when Gabbert elected to transfer after the conclusion of spring ball.

Franklin begins fall camp holding the starting job, but he'll be followed closely by Glaser and coaches expect senior Jimmy Costello (a former walk-on who is now a scholarship player) and true freshman Corbin Berkstresser to provide a challenge. But every snap of every practice and scrimmage gets reviewed by coaches, so while Franklin is in the driver's seat (he played in 10 games in 2010), it should still be a very competitive race.

"We've got battles all over the field, but people certainly look at the importance of quarterback," Pinkel said. "Whoever wins the job, the good news for him, is that he's going to have an offensive line that's probably as experienced as any offensive line I've ever coached. Plus, he's got everybody else back, including all of the receivers and running backs. I've never had a first-year quarterback have this much experience around him. All these other guys need to pick their games up to the highest level, to increase that guy's chance for being successful," he said.

OFFENSIVE LINE

Whoever wins the starting quarterback job will benefit greatly from having one of the most experienced offensive lines in the nation to protect him. Four of MU's five starters from a year ago return, and three of them won some level of All-Big 12 acclaim in 2010, including senior RT Dan Hoch (2nd-Team All-Big 12), senior LT Elvis Fisher (Hon. Men. All-Big 12) and senior RG Austin Wuebbels (Hon. Men. All-Big 12). They're joined by the return of proven veteran, senior LG Jayson Palmgren to form a line that has 104 career starts under its belt.

Fisher

The prime candidate to replace the departed Barnes (a three-year starter at center) is junior Travis Ruth, who has 16 games of experience under his belt coming into the season.

"There's a lot of experience there, maybe more than I've ever had coming back on an offensive line," said Pinkel. "I think the challenge is to get our young players like Anthony Gatti, Mitch Morse, Nick Demien, Mark Hill and some other guys too, like Chris Freeman, getting those young guys up in position where they're ready to play. So that's our challenge there. Fisher was out for the spring (off-season shoulder surgery), so Jack Meiners moved out to tackle and he did a good job. Will he be a guy who can find a spot inside possibly with Fisher back? We want to find out who our five best offensive linemen are we'll find where they can play," he said.

TAILBACK

There will be a bunch of familiar faces lining up in the backfield for Mizzou in 2011, as all four primary ball carriers return to give the Tigers a group which combined to rush for 1,557 yards, 19 touchdowns and averaged 5.8 yards per carry.

Senior De'Vion Moore led Mizzou in rushing a year ago, with 517 yards and a team-best eight touchdowns. A spirited competition in the spring saw junior Kendial Lawrence (422 yards, 4 TDs) emerge on top of the depth heading into the fall, but look for the battle for the starting job to continue well into camp, if not throughout the season.

A couple of speedy sophomores Henry Josey (437 yards, 5 TDs) and Marcus Murphy (181 yards, 2 TDs) are next on the depth, and they're back with a year of seasoning under their belts. A new face will join the mix in 2011, as redshirt freshman Greg White will work hard to see if he can find some time in the rotation.

"There's a lot of competition here, it will be interesting to see if one of the guys can separate himself," Pinkel said. "It's the challenge I gave them when I met with them before spring football, and I threw it out to them, is there somebody here who's going to step up and say, 'I'm the guy?' They're all good players, which is great, but is there somebody who's going to separate themselves? As they mature and get older and get faster, stronger and quicker, to me that's just raising the competitive bar, that's what I like to do. I'm very excited about the experience of the group, all of a sudden this has become a very experienced position, which is a plus. I think there's a lot of talent there," Pinkel said.

Moore

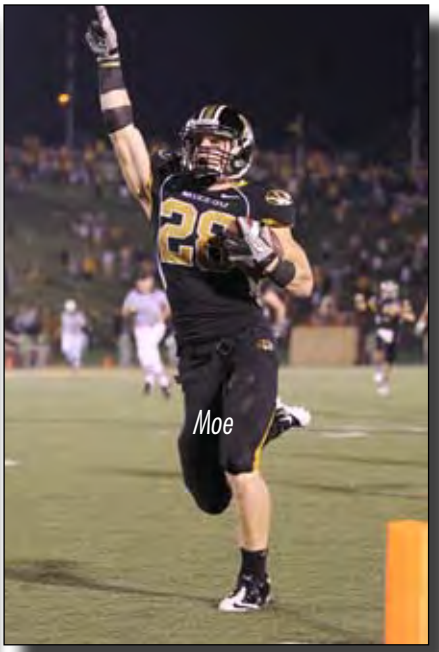
RECEIVERS

Mizzou considers all wide receivers and tight ends under the bigger category of receivers, and just like their tailback counterparts, this group returns everybody and then some.

Every single one of Mizzou's 312 receptions and 3,292 receiving yards from the 2010 season comes back for 2011. Leading the way is the 1-2 punch of junior WR T.J. Moe and senior TE

Lawrence

Egnew



Moe

Michael Egnew, who were among the most productive duos in the nation a year ago. Moe led Mizzou with 92 catches for 1,045 yards and six touchdowns, and he closed the year with a record-breaking 15-catch, 152-yard performance in the Insight Bowl (he had a 16th catch taken away by replay officials). Egnew, who had a combined seven receptions in his first two years in the Tiger program, exploded onto the national scene, with a 90-catch, 762-yard, five-touchdown season that landed him consensus 1st-Team All-American honors, as well as finalist status for the John Mackey Award.

Senior WR Jerrell Jackson is back for a final season, and he'll look to expand on the home-run playmaking ability he has displayed at times for the last three years. Jackson, who lines up at the X-receiver spot, caught 50 passes in 2010 for 656 yards and three touchdowns. The fourth returning starter among receivers is senior WR Wes Kemp, who is coming off a career year which featured 39 receptions for 420 yards and three scores.

The depth behind those front line players is almost an embarrassment of riches for receivers coach Andy Hill. The Tigers have speedsters with game experience like Rolandis Woodland (5 catches, 97 yards), L'Damian Washington (5 catches, 35 yards) and Gahn McGaffie (6 catches, 40 yards), who combine with proven performers such as Brandon Gerau (7 catches, 120 yards), Marcus Lucas and TE Andrew Jones to give Mizzou a ton of targets. As if that wasn't enough, add to the mix some very exciting young talent waiting to make their mark, such as sophomore TE Eric Waters, sophomore WR Jaleel Clark, redshirt freshmen wide receivers Bud Sasser and Jimmie Hunt, as well as sophomore Kerwin Stricker and true freshman Wesley Leftwich (a January enrollee after graduating early from Columbia Hickman High School), and there's plenty to be excited about here.

"T.J. Moe is a 2nd-team all-conference player, Michael Egnew is a 1st-team all-American player, Jerrell Jackson had some moments last year where he looked as good as anybody, as did Wes Kemp," said Pinkel. "The good news is you've got all of this competition in there with it, you've got those guys, you've got Sasser, you've got Jimmie Hunt coming in, Marcus Lucas coming in, L'Damian Washington is going to be better too, so, all of the guys up there in the depth, the competition is going to be huge at this position. We're very, very excited to see how it ends up," he said.

DEFENSE

It's true that Mizzou put together one of the most improved defenses in the nation in 2010, as the Tigers ranked first in the Big 12 Conference, and sixth nationally, in scoring defense, allowing 16.1 points per game. Dave Steckel's defense played so well, that late in the year, it changed the offensive philosophy a bit, as the offense knew it didn't have to light up the scoreboard with every possession.

It's also true that the Tiger defense will miss several starters from that 2010 unit, standouts who were outstanding players for a long time – DE Aldon Smith, LB Andrew Gachkar, CB Kevin Rutland, CB Carl Gettis and FS Jarrell Harrison. But the silver lining comes with the fact that the depth is in great shape for 2011, because those are the only losses – every other letterwinner from last year is back, and they bring a combined 131 career starts with them. That nucleus got a taste of what a good defense needs to get the job done, and they'll look to continue that in 2011.

"It was really nice to be in that position, playing such good defense," Pinkel said. "Our challenge is continue to play at that level going forward. The bottom line with defense is, you can look at all of the stats and rankings, but all that matters about defense is scoring, and we were really good there last year. It's interesting, you lose a guy like Aldon Smith, who had a great career here, but the guy who played behind him was 2nd-team all-conference in Brad Madison, and it's a position where we have a lot of depth. Do you miss a guy like Aldon, there's no question, just like you miss a guy like Blaine Gabbert or a Tim Barnes, you miss guys who are established starters and all-conference players. But I feel good because defensively, this might be the greatest amount of depth we've had on this football team," he said.

J. Smith

DEFENSIVE LINE

Seven different Tigers earned starts on the defensive line in 13 games a year ago, and six of them return. This group is led by senior DE Jacquies Smith (5.5 sacks, 2 fumble recoveries, 1 touchdown), who has 19 career starts on his resume, and who has proven to have a nose for big plays. Senior DT Terrell Resonno (35 tackles, 4.0 TFLs, 2.0 sacks) blossomed in his first year as a starter a year ago, and expects to raise his level of play in 2011. Senior NT Dominique Hamilton was on his way to a very productive year in 2010, but was lost early in MU's win over Oklahoma in game seven with a broken foot that knocked him out for the season. Hamilton is ready to go after missing spring drills, and he'll bring his 19 career starts with him. Junior DT Jimmy Burge (16 tackles, 1 PBU) filled in admirably for Hamilton, as he started the last six games and gained valuable experience. He's joined by junior DE Brad Madison and sophomore DE Michael Sam (7.0 TFLs, 3.5 sacks, 2 forced fumbles, 1 INT) who both made spot starts a year ago.

Madison even won enough respect around the league for his stellar play that he was voted 2nd-Team All-Big 12 by league media, despite starting just twice. It was well-warranted though, as Madison led Mizzou with 11.0 TFLs and 7.5 sacks, to go with a pair of forced fumbles and a fumble recovery.

The depth on the line is also shaping up nicely, as coaches expect sophomores Brayden Burnett (DE), and Marvin Foster (DT) to combine with freshmen Kony Ealy (DE), Lucas Vincent (DT) and Matt Hoch (DE) to provide some big competition this fall.

"We moved Matt Hoch from tight end to defensive end, we think the defensive side of the ball is where he has a chance to be his very best," said Pinkel. "We've got young players like Lucas Vincent and Kony Ealy who are going to come in and get in the depth now and compete, so you've got those three guys who I think have tremendous potential. Along with the experienced players we have coming back, like Jacquies Smith, Brad Madison, Michael Sam and Brayden Burnett did a lot of things last year. Dominique, before he got hurt, and Terrell had exceptional years. Even though we lose a great player like an Aldon Smith, I think it's very exciting because we have a lot of experience coming back," he said.

Gooden

LINEBACKERS

Much like the defensive line, the linebacking position group will benefit from having four of five players return to the fold this year who started games in 2010. Gone is Andrew Gachkar, who had a break out year as a senior (and was drafted in the 7th round of the NFL Draft by the San Diego Chargers), but there is enough proven talent coming back that coaches feel the group can be even better than a year ago.

Leading the charge is junior WLB Zaviar Gooden, who had a breakout year in 2010 as he led the team with 85 tackles. Arguably the best all-around athlete on the team, Gooden started all 13 games a year ago, and his athleticism was a large reason for the improvement of the Tiger defense as a whole. Also back is senior Will Ebner, who battled injuries a year ago, but still turned in a solid year (47 tackles) in 10 games. The Tigers got good news in the off-season, when veteran Luke Lambert was awarded a medical hardship to give him one more year of eligibility. Lambert, who will be a senior in 2011, was primed to have a big year last season, only to suffer hamstring and knee injuries which limited him to three games. His returning leadership should be a big benefit to the linebackers, as well as the defense overall. Also returning is sophomore Andrew Wilson, who made three starts during the season when injuries took their toll. Wilson, the son of former Tiger LB great Jay Wilson, was outstanding in his first year of action, as he made 42 tackles in 13 games, and showed he's ready to make big hits for years to come.

Sophomore Donovan Bonner also returns from a knee injury which knocked him out all of the 2010 season, and he's eager to display his considerable athleticism that has coaches excited about his future. A pair of newcomers also figure to play a factor, in redshirt freshmen Darvin Ruise and Jared Parham.

"With our linebacking corps, we lose Andrew Gachkar, who had a heck of a year last season," Pinkel said. "But we've got Zaviar Gooden coming back, obviously Luke Lambert coming back is a real plus for us because he's a starter. Will Ebner is a starter, and with those three guys coming back, we feel like we have three starters coming back, even though we lost Gachkar. Andrew Wilson had a great year last year as a freshman, and Donovan Bonner is a good prospect coming off of knee surgery. Darvin Ruise has had a really great off-season, he's a big athlete who can really run, and Jared Parham is a young guy who is working really hard. It's really about building our depth, especially with having two starters out with injuries," he said.

Both Lambert and Ebner missed spring camp due to their continuing rehabilitation from their injuries, but they'll both be full go by the fall.

CORNERBACKS

Mizzou loses a pair of proven performers in Carl Gettis and Kevin Rutland, who were four-year and two-year starters, respectively. While they'll surely be missed, Tiger coaches are confident that the young talent coming up in the ranks is ready to keep things going on the upward tick.

The hopes start with junior Kip Edwards, who coaches consider to be a returning starter, even though he didn't technically make any starts in 2010. That's because Edwards played nearly as much as either Gettis or Rutland, as he came in during passing situations, and was the first one off the bench to sub for either starter to keep them fresh in a three-man rotation. Edwards was very productive, as he made 36 tackles in 13 games, including 5.0 TFLs, 1.0 sack and six pass break ups, to go with an interception.

On the other side of the field, sophomore E.J. Gaines holds down the top spot on the depth chart, after he earned significant playing time as a true freshman in 2010. Gaines made 26 tackles and broke up a pass in his first year with the program, and he earned more and more playing time as the season progressed, which gives coaches hope that he'll continue to build on that experience. Others in the mix for playing time at corner include senior Trey Hobson (36 career games), junior Robert Steeples (25 career games) and talented redshirt freshmen Xavier Smith and Tristen Holt.

"I think it's a similar situation here, if you look back at last year, Kip Edwards was really a starter, he split 50-50 with Carl Gettis and Kevin Rutland, and he also played all the time in our dime package, so we look at him as a starter, and he had a very good year," Pinkel said. "E.J. Gaines played last year as a true freshman and he's pretty good. So even though we lose two starters on paper, we've got two guys who without question I think they can play at a high level in this league. It will be interesting to see how they challenge themselves and see how good they can be. The same thing is, you've got Hobson and Steeples behind them, a lot of experience, guys who have been in the program for a long time, they're competing to play. And then you've got Holt and Smith, we've got more depth there, in terms of talented athletes, than we've ever had there, so that's nice to see that come around," he said.

SAFETIES

Senior strong safety Kenji Jackson had an outstanding 2010 season, as he became a steadying force in the secondary and played a key role in MU's overall improvement. Jackson, who is slated for his fourth year as a starter (21 career starts in all), ranked fourth on the team with 66 tackles, and he broke up three passes and was second on the team with a pair of interceptions.

At the free safety position, the Tigers will look to replace departed standout Jarrell Harrison, who had 69 stops and two interceptions last year as a senior. Looking to step in is talented sophomore Tavon Bolden, who got 13 games of experience under his belt last year, playing more and more throughout the season while making 14 tackles in all. Junior college transfer Kenronte Walker and redshirt freshman Daniel Easterly line up behind Jackson on the depth at strong safety, while sophomore Matt White (18 tackles, 2 pass break ups in 13 games in 2010) and redshirt freshman Braylon Webb also will look to compete for playing time at free safety.

"At safety, Kenji Jackson had a great year last year, and now can he take his play up to the all-conference level as a senior," asked Pinkel. "We lost Jarrell Harrison, he was a really good football player, but we've got Bolden, White and Walker out there competing. It seems like we've got more depth all over this team, in terms of athletes, than we've ever had. Does that mean you're a good football player? Certainly not, but the numbers of players in place that we have, compared to the past, is a great positive," he said.

SPECIALISTS

Mizzou enjoys the luxury of returning one of the most accurate and dependable kickers in the nation, as senior PK Grant Ressel will be back for a third year handling those pressure-packed duties. In the last two years, Ressel has lined up to try 132 kicks overall. He's made 127 of them, for an eye-popping success rate of 96.2% (43-of-46 FGs, 84-of-86 PATs).

The Tigers will be looking to replace departed punter Matt Grabner, who did an outstanding job in his only year handling the punting chores. Mizzou, thanks in large part to Grabner's efforts, ranked 14th in the NCAA in net punting (39.06 avg.) in 2010. Looking to win the punting job will be junior Trey Barrow, who punted twice last year, and who also has handled kickoffs in the past.

"Obviously, we have one of the best kickers in the nation in Grant Ressel, so we expect him to continue what he's done in the past," said Pinkel. "With the punter position, it's open, so Trey Barrow is going to be the guy going into the fall, we're going to see where we are there. It's a position we're kind of concerned about, but we've done a good job with that in the past, and I think he's got the potential to do it. In fact, there's no choice about it, he's got to get it done. I think the big thing for Trey is just consistency," he said.

Ressel

As Pinkel looks forward to the 2011 season, he did allow himself to take one look back at the exciting 2010 season, which featured 10 wins, a 7-0 start, a share of the Big 12 North Division title, and the school's first-ever win over a #1-ranked team, when the Tigers defeated Oklahoma 36-27 on Homecoming weekend with ESPN's College GameDay crew in Columbia for the first time ever.

"You always want to reach your potential," Pinkel said. "We did some really good things and made some big steps I thought last season. Overall, it was a heck of a year, it was one of the three best years in the history of Missouri. But it's also my job to look at the negatives and work on correcting them, so I look back and think that I didn't handle the team right after the Oklahoma win. We didn't play our best game the next two weeks, and we finally got going again after we lost to Texas Tech. It's hard to win, we did win 10 games and went 6-2 in conference. My biggest disappointment how the whole thing came out was our bowl game, when we had the ball on the 30-yardline going in, we've got the game in hand, and we didn't finish the game. We usually finish games here, I probably wouldn't be sitting here if we weren't good at finishing games. But, you do have mistakes happen and you have to be able to recover from them, we couldn't do it then. We usually don't let games get away from us like that. Those are frustrating losses, there were lessons learned. I think if we had won, we'd have been maybe 10th or 11th, but even with the bowl game, we were still 18th," he said.

2011 SEASON

Has the full attention of Tiger fans everywhere as he enters the fall as the heir apparent to take over the reins at quarterback – a position where Mizzou's last three starters are currently in the NFL ... Emerged from a spirited competition in the spring with the top spot on the depth chart, and he'll look to hang onto that spot after a summer spent honing his athletic and leadership skills ... Was one of the nation's top dual-threat QBs in his prep days, and he has shown he can move the offense downfield with either his arm or his legs.

2010 SEASON

Served as the understudy to eventual 1st-round NFL draft pick Blaine Gabbert, and saw action in 10 games as he was given snaps in key spots of most games ... Was asked to use his size and strength in the run game most often, and he carried 23 times for 116 yards and 2 TDs, and he also completed 11-of-14 passes for 1 score ... Completed six-of-eight passes in his first game for 25 yards against McNeese State ... Carried the ball four times for 28 yards and scored a TD on an eight-yard run in the third quarter ... Was 3-of-4 passing for 35 yards against Colorado ... Picked up his first career TD pass on a seven-yard toss to Michael Egnew in the 4th quarter ... Scored his second TD of the year on a three-yard run in the 4th quarter to help seal the Tigers' victory over Oklahoma ... Had two runs for a total of 17 yards, including a 17-yard rush on MU's first series ... Carried the ball five times for 19 yards against Iowa State, including a 10-yard run on a 3rd-and-1 play.

An impact player who makes things happen whenever he gets the ball in his hands ... Looks to follow up his impressive sophomore campaign with more of the same, and he'll look to do his damage to opposing defense from the H-receiver spot, where he started 13 times a year ago ... After leading the Tigers in receiving last year, enters the 2011 season on the national radar, as he was named in July to the pre-season watch list for the Biletnikoff Award.

2010 SEASON

Emerged as Mr. Dependable for the Tiger offense, as he caught 92 passes for 1,045 yards and 6 TDs, after catching just 2 passes for 8 yards as a freshman ... His 92 catches rank as 3rd-most in MU single-season history, while his yardage ranks 6th alltime on the MU season charts ... Ranked 19th in the NCAA with his 6.4 receptions per game, and he had only two games where he had less than five catches on the season ... Closed the year with an heroic performance in the Insight Bowl against Iowa, when he caught 15 passes (just one shy of the MU game record) for 152 yards ... Made an unreal catch on 4th-and-10 to seemingly keep alive MU's last-chance drive to win the game late in the 4th quarter, only to have replay officials overrule the decision on the field that it was a beautiful diving catch ... Had three double-digit reception games in all, including a 13-catch, 101-yard, 1-TD effort in his first career start in his hometown of St. Louis against Illinois to begin the year ... Followed with a 10-catch, 79-yard night the next week against McNeese State, playing barely more than one half ... Scored his first career TD on a seven-yard pass from Blaine Gabbert in the third quarter vs. the Illini ... Had 7 receptions for 119 yards against San Diego State ... Scored the game-winning TD against SDSU on a 68-yard catch and run with under a minute to play and the Tigers down by four ... Had a team-best seven receptions against Miami (Ohio) for 95 yards ... The Coaches

Gary Pinkel

Head Coach
11th Year at Mizzou
Akron, Ohio
Kent State, 1973

In 10 years at the University of Missouri, Gary Pinkel has meticulously built a previously downtrodden program into one of the most successful in the nation. With 40 wins in the last four seasons (ranking as 9th-most in the nation from 2007-10), three division titles in the last four years, and a school-record six-consecutive bowl game appearances, Pinkel's vision for success has come to fruition, and is pointed toward an even brighter future.

Mizzou is coming off the third 10-win season in the last four years under Pinkel, as the 2010 Tigers went 10-3 overall, including a 6-2 mark in Big 12 Conference play that earned them a spot atop the North Division rankings for the third time since 2007. Included among those 10 wins a year ago was a watershed moment for the program, and for Tiger Nation overall – a 36-27 win over top-ranked Oklahoma on Homecoming, which marked the first-ever win by Mizzou over a #1-ranked team.

A sign of growing respect for the work that Pinkel and his staff has done to build the program came along with that win over Oklahoma. That week, Mizzou was the focal point of the entire college football universe, as ESPN sent its wildly popular traveling show, "ESPN GameDay," to the MU campus. A record crowd of an estimated 18,000 Tiger fans packed the picturesque Francis Quadrangle for the Saturday morning show, and made everyone associated with the school glow with pride. A national audience watched the GameDay program, and then the nation promptly watched the Tigers pull away in the fourth quarter against the Sooners to move to 7-0 on a season for only the third time in school history.

Pinkel ranks third on Mizzou's all-time coaching wins list with a 77-49 record. He is in a select group of MU coaches that includes College Football Hall of Famers Don Faurot and Dan Devine, as well as Warren Powers, as the only coaches to have an MU record above .500 dating back to 1935.

Pinkel has guided Mizzou to seven bowl games, surpassing the previous MU record of six he previously held along with Dan Devine. With wins in the 2008 AT&T Cotton Bowl (38-7 over Arkansas) and in the 2008 Valero Alamo Bowl (30-23 over Northwestern), Pinkel became the first coach to lead the Tigers to bowl victories in consecutive seasons since Powers did the trick in 1981 and 1982.

Over the past eight seasons, Pinkel has led Missouri to a 68-35 record (66.2%) and to bowl games in 2003, 2005, 2006, 2007, 2008, 2009 and 2010. Dating back to the 2005 Independence Bowl, Pinkel has won 49 of his last 68 games overall (72.1%). He is the first coach in school history to earn six straight bowl berths.

His success has led to an increased commitment to the Tiger Football program from the University, as Pinkel was awarded with a seven-year contract in April of 2011 that will keep him on the Tiger sidelines through the 2017 season. With winning seasons in 2003 (8-5), 2005 (7-5), 2006 (8-5), 2007 (12-2), 2008 (10-4), 2009 (8-5) and 2010 (10-3), Pinkel has directed MU to seven of the nine winning campaigns the school has had overall since the 1983 season.

Pinkel's 10-year record at Mizzou stands at 77-49 entering the 2011 season, and in his 20 years overall as a head coach, his teams have a 150-86-3 overall mark.

With a school-record 12 wins in 2007 and 10 more in 2008, MU's two-year win total of 22 was third-most in the nation during that time, trailing only USC (23) and Oklahoma (23). The back-to-back 10-win seasons marked the first such occurrence in Mizzou history, and Pinkel has now directed three of the four double-digit win seasons in school annals.

In 2007, Pinkel guided Mizzou to arguably the greatest season in school history. Among the myriad achievements that year included a school-record 12 wins, claiming MU's first New Year's Day bowl victory since 1966, getting the program's first-ever Big 12 North Division crown, and earning a No. 1 Associated Press national ranking for the first time since 1960 and coming up one win shy of playing for the national championship.

To simply list the highlights surrounding Pinkel's renaissance in Columbia would not do his body of work justice. After all, Mizzou's current run of six-straight bowl games have been the culmination of hard work and determination that began after his hiring on Nov. 30, 2000.

While Pinkel himself would say that it is still a work in progress, his program's numerous accomplishments can be highlighted, which helps to tell this story of football success in Mid-Missouri.

In achieving the program's first No. 1 national ranking since 1960, MU raced to a 5-0 start in 2007, including wins over Rose Bowl bound Illinois and perennial nemesis Nebraska. The Tigers averaged nearly 42 points per game in those wins and only a late flurry of points by the Fighting Illini kept any of those games in doubt.

While eventual Big 12 Champion Oklahoma was the lone stumbling block for Pinkel's squad in 2007, the Tigers set numerous school records, including school marks for wins (12), points per game (39.9), total points (558) and total offense (6,864 yards). Most of the offensive records were broken again one year later, as the Tigers' potent spread attack upped those marks to 42.2 points per game, 591 total points in 2008.

For his outstanding achievements both on and off the field in 2007, Pinkel was a finalist for several national coach of the year awards, including the Robinson, Bryant and Munger awards. He also was named the National Coach of the Year by FieldTurf in 2007.

In winning a school-record 12 games in 2007, Mizzou clearly caught the attention of the national football community, as the Tigers began the season unranked but quickly darted up the charts with wins over bowl teams such as Illinois, Texas Tech and Colorado. And after the Tigers defeated arch rival and 2nd-ranked Kansas on Nov. 24th, Mizzou stood atop the college football world, ranked number one for the first and only time since 1960. Mizzou was featured on every college football television show after, and also graced the covers of virtually every prominent national sporting publication, including Sports Illustrated, The Sporting News and USA Today.

While the 2007 Tigers cashed in on the steady growth of the program over the previous six seasons, the Tigers also enjoyed an exciting 2006 campaign that saw them win eight regular-season games for just the 10th time in school history, and Missouri's appearance in the Brut Sun Bowl marked MU's third bowl game in four seasons - the first time in 25 years that Mizzou had reached three bowls in four years.

Pinkel and his program successfully built on the momentum created from a scintillating 38-31 win over South Carolina in the 2005 Independence Bowl that saw his Tigers overcome a 21-point deficit. The thrilling win marked the largest come-from-behind win in school history, and it gave Mizzou only its second bowl win in the previous 24 years.

After taking over a program that had fallen on hard times in 2001, Pinkel had increased success in each of his first three seasons, improving from four wins in 2001 to five wins in 2002, to the 2003 squad which went 8-5 and made the school's third bowl appearance since 1983.

Long considered a "sleeping giant" of a program, Mizzou had a breakthrough 2003 season under Pinkel's guidance, as he showed that Tiger Nation can indeed roar again.

The list of accomplishments turned in by the 2003 team was impressive:

The eight regular-season wins marked the first time since 1980 - and only the 4th time since 1960 - that MU had amassed that many wins in the regular season. The team became only the 9th in MU's history to accomplish the feat...

MU went a perfect 6-0 at Faurot Field that season, with the win total marking a school record for one season at home. Mizzou had never won more than five games at Faurot, which opened as Memorial Stadium in 1926. It also marked MU's first unblemished home season since the 1974 team went 5-0...

Mizzou's 41-24 win over #10 Nebraska on Oct. 11th was one for the history books, as it broke a 24-game losing streak to the Huskers for MU, making Pinkel the first Tiger coach to beat Nebraska since Warren Powers in 1978...

The Nebraska win also marked MU's first win over a top-10 opponent since 1981, breaking a string of 45 straight losses to top-10 foes for the school...

Mizzou led the Big 12 Conference, and ranked 6th in the NCAA, in rushing, with an average of 237.46 yards per game. That marked the first time since 1960 that Mizzou has won a conference rushing team title...

The 31st head coach in the program's history, Pinkel was hired on Nov. 30, 2000, and began immediately to prove to his colleagues, alumni, fans and student-athletes that Tiger Football could be a national player.

After a rebuilding year in 2001, Pinkel had Mizzou much improved in his 2nd campaign -- and playing for bowl eligibility entering the Tigers' final game of the season. Tough losses to 3rd-ranked Oklahoma (on a late fourth quarter fake field goal), to 18th-ranked Colorado (in overtime) and a last-second loss at 22nd-ranked Iowa State were all that kept Mizzou out of a bowl game.

Pinkel opened the 2002 campaign by leading MU to one of the program's most impressive season-opening wins in recent history when Mizzou dismantled Illinois -- the defending Big Ten Conference champions and a 2001 BCS Bowl team -- 33-20 in St. Louis, Mo. He later defeated Mizzou's heated rival, the Kansas Jayhawks, as MU downed Kansas 36-12 to give him a 2-0 record vs. KU -- making him only the third coach in school history to win his first two encounters against Kansas.

Pinkel came to Missouri after spending 10 very successful years as head coach at Toledo, where he amassed an impressive 73-37-3 record (65.9%).

The school's alltime winningest coach, Pinkel's last six teams there went a combined 50-18-1 overall. Three of those teams advanced to play in the post-season, capturing one Mid-American Conference championship and three MAC West Division titles. Three of his last five teams at Toledo were ranked in the nation's top 25. His 1995 squad went 11-0-1, and was one of just two schools (national champ Nebraska was the other) to finish the season without a loss.

For his accomplishments at Toledo, Pinkel was inducted into the school's athletic hall of fame in February of 2009.

Prior to becoming a head coach, Pinkel learned the trade from one of the all-time great coaches, the legendary Don James. For 12 years as an assistant under James at Washington (1979-90), Pinkel helped guide the Huskies to a combined record of 104-37-2 (73.4%) and three Pac-10 Conference titles. He served as UW's offensive coordinator for seven seasons (1984-90), and helped mold one of the nation's most potent offensive attacks.

Pinkel played under James at Kent State University, where he was an all-conference and honorable mention All-American tight end. He graduated in 1973.

Pinkel graduated from Kenmore High School in Akron, Ohio, and received his bachelor of science degree in education from Kent in 1973. He did post-graduate studies at Kent and Bowling Green, and in 1997 was inducted into the Kent Athletic Hall of Fame. He was born April 27, 1952. Pinkel and his wife, Vicki, have a daughter, Erin, and sons Geoff and Blake.

Six Straight Bowl Games – A Mizzou Record

FORD'S ALL-BIG 12 PERFORMERS

- Tauras Ferguson, OS – Hon. Men. (2001)
- Shirdonya Mitchell, CB – Hon. Men. (2004)
- Marcus King, CB – Hon. Men. (2005)
- Darnell Terrell, CB – Hon. Men. (2006)
- Carl Gettis, CB – 2nd-Team Freshman All-American (2007), Hon. Men. (2007, 2008, 2009, 2010)
- Castine Bridges, CB – Hon. Men. (2008)
- Kevin Rutland, CB – Hon. Men. (2009, 2010)

Cornell Ford is in his 18th season as a valuable member of Coach Gary Pinkel's staff, including his 11th at Mizzou working with the Tiger secondary. Beginning with the 2004 season, Ford has coached the Tiger cornerbacks, after he focused on MU's outside safeties his first three years. Ford is also the Tigers' chief recruiter in St. Louis, where he has signed some of the very best players in the state.

Both of Ford's starting cornerbacks have earned All-Big 12 status in each of the last three seasons (2008-10), including Carl Gettis and Kevin Rutland both in 2009 and 2010. The Tiger pass defense was a large reason for Mizzou's much-improved play in 2010, as MU led the Big 12 and ranked 6th nationally in scoring defense, allowing just 16.08 points per game. The Tigers also ranked 11th nationally in pass efficiency defense, with an opponent passer rating of 108.45.

Rutland's development earned him an invitation to the 2011 NFL Combine, while Gettis also hopes to get his shot at the next level after starting for four years under Ford's direction at Mizzou.

In 2009, Gettis and Rutland were named honorable mention all-league by league coaches for their play. Gettis ranked 6th on the team in 2009 with 61 tackles, and led the team with 5 pass break ups, to go with having a hand in 4 turnovers in his third year as a starter. Rutland, in his first year as a starter, developed into MU's top corner, as he won honorable-mention all-league status and was named the team's cornerback of the year for his season, which included 47 tackles and a team-high 2 interceptions.

Both of Ford's starting cornerbacks earned All-Big 12 mention in 2008, with senior Castine Bridges and sophomore Carl Gettis winning honorable mention all-league acclaim for their play on the Tigers' 10-4 squad. Gettis further established himself as one of the top young defensive backs in the Big 12 Conference as he ranked 5th on the Tiger squad with 78 tackles, 4 pass break ups and 1 interception. Bridges closed out his Tiger career with 69 tackles and 1 interception, plus a team-high 7 pass break ups.

Mizzou's cornerbacks turned in a solid 2007 season overall, and were a definite reason that the Tiger defense was one of the best in the Big 12 Conference. True freshman Carl Gettis blossomed under Ford's coaching, as he became a starter early in the year and eventually won 2nd-Team Freshman All-American honors for his play. Senior Darnell Terrell was invited to the NFL Combine in the off-season, and later signed a free-agent contract with the Cleveland Browns.

The Tiger secondary was instrumental in MU's defensive improvement in 2006, and Ford's cornerbacks were a big reason why. Led by junior Darnell Terrell, who earned honorable mention All-Big 12 honors from league coaches, the Tigers ranked 2nd in the Big 12 Conference, and 37th nationally, in pass defense, permitting 185.69 yards per game on average.

After losing his top performer from 2004 in Shirdonya Mitchell, Ford helped develop his cornerback unit into one that was dependable and steady in 2005. Mizzou ended the 2005 regular season ranking 4th in the Big 12 in pass defense.

Senior Marcus King blossomed into a big-play performer for the Tiger secondary in 2005, as he led the team with a career-high 13 passes broken up – including a record-breaking 99-yard interception return for a TD in the Independence Bowl win. King earned honorable mention All-Big 12 honors by both league coaches and media for his efforts, and he teamed with fellow senior A.J. Kincade to give the Tigers a dependable tandem. King later went on to earn a free agent contract with the NFL's Dallas Cowboys following the 2006 NFL Draft, and another Ford protégé, Calvin Washington, was invited to the rookie minicamp of the Washington Redskins following the draft as well.

Just about every one of Ford's cornerbacks had career years under his coaching in 2004, and that performance was instrumental in Mizzou's substantial improvement in defense. Thanks in large part to his cornerbacks, Mizzou led the Big 12 Conference, and ranked 3rd nationally in pass defense in 2004, allowing an average of just 149.27 yards per game. His corners grabbed 8 of MU's 15 interceptions in 2004, which was a nice team improvement from a total of 9 in 2003 (including 3 from cornerbacks that year).

Senior Shirdonya Mitchell blossomed into a high-level cornerback in 2004 under Ford's direction, as he ranked 5th in the Big 12 Conference, and 33rd nationally, with his 4 interceptions. Mitchell earned honorable mention All-Big 12 honors for his play, in only his second year playing defense, and signed a two-year free agent deal with the Miami Dolphins following the 2005 NFL Draft. Juniors Marcus King and A.J. Kincade also had big years, as King tied for the team lead with four turnovers gained (2 interceptions and 2 fumbles) and led the team with 7 pass break ups, while Kincade had a career-high 2 interceptions, including a game-winning pickoff in overtime of the season finale at Iowa State.

In addition to his coaching duties, Ford has worked hard to earn a reputation as one of the most well-trusted recruiting presences in his area of St. Louis. His straightforward approach has attracted stars such as Will Franklin, Jeremy Maclin, Blaine Gabbert and Wes Kemp to Mizzou. In 2009, he landed Gateway Tech superstar Sheldon Richardson, who was one of the nation's top overall prospects, and in February of 2010, MU signed a class which ranked 21st-best in the nation according to Rivals.com, and that was the highest ranking ever for a Tiger recruiting class. Ford was also successful in getting Missouri's foot in the door in other St. Louis schools where there hadn't been much Tiger success in recent years.

Ford spent five seasons at Toledo coaching the wide receivers. Toledo graduate Mel Long pulled in 175 receptions in his four-year career, 21 of those for touchdowns. Under Ford, Long became Toledo's all-time leading receiver.

Before Toledo, Ford coached at Marietta College where he coached the quarterbacks, running backs and receivers, while also serving as the team's strength and conditioning coach. Prior to joining the Marietta staff, Ford served two seasons as a graduate assistant at Toledo. He helped with the offensive line in 1992 and the secondary in 1991.

Ford holds a bachelor's degree (1991) in physical education and a master's degree (1993) in sports administration from Toledo.

He and his wife, Dawn, are the parents of a son, Devin, and a daughter, Taylor.

Josh Henson

Co-Offensive Line
3rd Year at Mizzou
Tuttle, Okla.
Oklahoma State, 1998

HENSON'S ALL-BIG 12 PERFORMERS

- Elvis Fisher, T – Hon. Men. (2009, 2010)
- Kurtis Gregory, G – Hon. Men. (2009)
- Dan Hoch, T – Hon. Men. (2009), 2nd-Team (2010)
- Tim Barnes, C – 1st-Team (2010)
- Austin Wuebbels, G – Hon. Men. (2010)

Josh Henson joined the University of Missouri football coaching staff in February of 2009 as its newest assistant coach. The first new hire to join Gary Pinkel's staff since he came to Mizzou in 2001, Henson came aboard to serve as co-offensive line coach. A former standout offensive lineman at Oklahoma State, Henson spent his prior four years as tight ends coach and recruiting coordinator at Louisiana State University, where he developed the reputation as being a tremendous on-field teacher of the game, while also leading the charge for LSU's recruiting classes which ranked among the top 10 in the nation four times - including a 2009 class recently ranked as No. 2 in the nation according to Rivals.com.

Henson has provided an immediate impact for the Tiger football program, both on and off the field. In 2009, he helped coach a trio of Tiger offensive linemen – senior Kurtis Gregory (2nd-Team), and sophomores Elvis Fisher (Hon. Men.) and Dan Hoch (Hon. Men.) to All-Big 12 honors. The offensive line helped protect first-year starting quarterback Blaine Gabbert well enough so that MU ranked 14th in the nation in passing, while allowing only 20 sacks in 13 games and 467 passing attempts.

It was more of the same in 2010, as the offensive line was a key element to Mizzou's 10-win season (only the fourth double-digit win season in school history), as four of Henson's five starters won some level of all-conference honors. Senior center Tim Barnes established himself as one of the top centers in the nation, and he took home 1st-Team All-Big 12 honors for his outstanding play. Also earning all-conference acclaim were juniors Dan Hoch (2nd-Team), Elvis Fisher (Hon. Men.) and Austin Wuebbels (Hon. Men.), and the return of the latter three, along with a fourth returning starter in senior Jayson Palmgren, give the Tigers one of the most experienced lines in the nation in 2011.

In the recruiting battles, Henson quickly helped MU establish ties to areas in which it had little success in recent years, and his efforts helped the Tiger 2010 class to a No. 21 national ranking by Rivals.com – marking the highest ranking ever for an MU recruiting class.

Henson is no stranger to the Big 12 Conference, as he spent 10 years as a player and coach at Oklahoma State, prior to his most recent successful stint as tight ends coach and recruiting coordinator at LSU. He replaced former Tiger coach Dave Christensen, who was the first assistant to leave Pinkel's staff since coming to MU in 2001. Christensen was named the head coach at Wyoming in December of 2008.

In 2007, Henson's coaching efforts helped LSU sophomore tight end Richard Dickson put together one of the most productive seasons at the position in school history. Dickson turned in the third-highest single-season reception total by a Tiger tight end in school history, and he capped the 2007 season by catching a pair of touchdown passes in LSU's 38-24 win over Ohio State in the 2008 BCS National Championship Game.

The Tiger tight ends played a key role as LSU's offense set a total of 10 school records in 2007, including points in a season and total yards in a season. Following the 2007 season, LSU tight end Keith Zinger was selected in the seventh round of the NFL Draft by the Atlanta Falcons.

As LSU's recruiting coordinator, Henson's abilities made an immediate impact on the Tiger roster as LSU had the nation's No. 2-ranked signing class in 2007 after a consensus top 6 national rating in 2006. For his efforts, Henson was ranked as one of college football's top 25 recruiters in 2006 and 2007 by Rivals.com.

At Oklahoma State, Henson was instrumental in the development of Billy Bajema, who was a three-year starter for the Cowboys. As a senior in 2004, Bajema was one of the top tight ends in the country, earning first-team All-Big 12 honors. Bajema was picked in the seventh round of the 2004 NFL Draft by the San Francisco 49ers.

Henson also played a vital role in OSU's offensive development as the Cowboys ranked among the top 15 scoring teams in the nation for three consecutive years. The Cowboys averaged over 34 points per game from 2002-04, which included 35.9 points per game in 2003 and 34.5 points a game in 2004.

As Oklahoma State's recruiting coordinator, Henson played a key role in OSU's 2003 signing class being ranked No. 15 in the nation by Rivals.com. A year earlier, Rivals.com rated the Cowboy class as the 26th-best in the country.

As a player, Henson was a four-year letterwinner with 40 career starts for Oklahoma State from 1993-97. He was a starter on the offensive line as well as team captain for Oklahoma State's 8-4 team in 1997, a squad that played in the Alamo Bowl against Purdue. He was a second-team All-Big 12 selection as a senior, in addition to being an honorable mention All-Big 12 pick as a junior. Off the field, Henson was named the recipient of the L.L. Boger Award as a senior, an honor that recognizes a student-athlete's achievement both on the field and in the classroom.

Henson graduated from Oklahoma State with a bachelor's degree in secondary education in 1998. Upon graduation, he went straight into coaching, serving as a high school football coach in Kingfisher, Okla. In one season at Kingfisher, he helped guide the Yellowjackets to the state semifinals.

Henson returned to Oklahoma State as a graduate assistant in July of 1999, spending one year with the Cowboy offensive line before taking a full-time position with OSU as tight ends coach in 2001.

Henson is a native of Tuttle, Okla. He and his wife Shauna have an 8-year old son, Will, and a 4-year old daughter, Kate. Henson lists golf, fishing and hunting as his hobbies in his spare time.

Andy Hill has coached 10 seasons under Gary Pinkel and 15 seasons overall at the University of Missouri, making him the longest tenured coach on the Tiger football staff. Hill has coached the Mizzou wide receivers ever since joining the Missouri staff in 1996, and in 2009, he assumed responsibilities for the Tiger tight ends as well.

Over the past few seasons, Hill has coached several of the most prolific pass catchers in the nation, as well as in Mizzou history. In 2010, junior TE Michael Egnew emerged as the nation's most productive receiving tight end, as he won consensus 1st-Team All-American honors, and was a Mackey Award finalist, for a year that saw him catch 90 passes for 762 yards and five touchdowns. That was an astounding progression for Egnew, who caught a combined seven passes in his first two years as a Tiger. Another great story in 2010 was the development of sophomore WR T.J. Moe into one of the nation's most prolific receivers as well. Moe burst onto the scene by catching 92 passes for 1,045 yards and six touchdowns, a year after he caught two passes as a true freshman in 2009. Moe's play won him 2nd-Team All-Big 12 honors. Hill, who also works with Tiger punters, helped develop first-year player and senior punter Matt Grabner into an honorable mention All-Big 12 performer after averaging 42.6 yards per punt.

Danario Alexander's 2009 season saw him lead the NCAA in receiving (137.0 yards per game), as he shattered school records for receptions (113), receiving yards (1,781) and receiving touchdowns (14). Alexander won 1st-Team All-American honors for his efforts in 2009, and he ended his career holding the MU career record for receiving yards (2,778).

The 2009 season saw senior punter Jake Harry IV turn in an outstanding season which included honorable mention All-Big 12 honors. Harry ranked 29th nationally in average (42.77), and he helped Mizzou rank 4th in the country in team net punting (40.48) – the highest MU has ever finished in the national standings in the category.

The 2008 season saw Hill work to develop sophomore Jeremy Maclin into arguably the most dynamic player in the nation. Maclin set an MU single-season record with 102 catches, 1,260 yards and 13 touchdowns receiving, and he also led the NCAA in all-purpose yardage, with his per-game average of 202.4 yards. The game-changer won consensus 1st-Team All-American honors for his play, as well as being named a finalist for the Biletnikoff Award. Maclin chose to bypass his final two years of eligibility at Mizzou, and was taken with the 19th overall selection in the 2009 NFL Draft by the Philadelphia Eagles.

Hill's group produced in record numbers during the Tigers' 10-4 season in 2008. As a team, Mizzou's passing attack shattered school records for receptions (404), receiving yards (4,625) and receiving touchdowns (41). Mizzou's passing attack ranked 4th in the NCAA in 2008, with a per-game average of 330.36 yards.

Thanks in no small part to Hill's work with the receivers, Mizzou's offense set myriad records in 2007, as the passing attack ranked 9th in the NCAA, averaging 314.07 yards per game. Two of his pupils, senior Will Franklin and freshman Jeremy Maclin, earned all-league honors for their outstanding play in 2007, including Maclin, who was a consensus 1st-Team All-American for his exploits as both a receiver and return man, in addition to being named 1st-Team All-Big 12 and Big 12 Offensive Freshman of the Year. Franklin was selected in the fourth round of the 2008 NFL Draft by the Kansas City Chiefs.

Hill also doubles as a highly-successful recruiter, primarily in the Kansas City and mid-Missouri areas, as he's been responsible for landing such big names over the years as Martin Rucker, 2008 Mackey Award Winner Chase Coffman, and Tony Temple, among numerous others. He was named by Rivals.com as one of the top-10 recruiters in the Big 12 Conference for 2007.

Hill helped develop Gage into one of the top receivers in the Big 12 Conference and one of the premier wide outs in the country. After converting from quarterback in the spring of 2000, Gage caught 200 passes for 2,704 yards and 18 touchdowns in three seasons – all MU career receiving records. Gage left after 2002 holding virtually every game, season and career receiving mark on the Mizzou books, and is now making an impact professionally, where he has been the Tennessee Titans' leading receiver in 2007 and 2008.

Previous to Missouri, Hill was the head football coach at Hutchinson (Kan.) Junior College. Hutchinson went 18-6 under Hill, including a 10-2 record in 1995 when it won its first Conference title since 1969 and ranked ninth in the final NJCAA national poll. He was named the conference Coach of the Year. Hill was the offensive coordinator at Hutchinson in 1992 and 1993 after serving as a graduate assistant at SMU in the spring of 1992.

Hill is a Mizzou grad who walked on in 1980 and eventually earned a scholarship. He lettered in 1980, '81, '83 and '84 and played on Missouri teams that earned trips to the Liberty, Tangerine and Holiday Bowls. In his career, Hill caught 51 passes for 946 yards and scored seven touchdowns. As a senior, he caught 25 passes for 445 yards and three scores. Following his playing days at Missouri, he spent time in the training camps of the Kansas City Chiefs and Calgary Stampeders in 1985 and '86.

Andy and his wife Sarah are the parents of daughter Patricia, and son Andrew. He earned his Bachelor of Arts in economics from MU in 1985.

JONES' ALL-BIG 12 PERFORMERS

- Zack Abron, TB – 3rd Team (2001), Hon. Men. (2002), 2nd Team (2003)
- Tony Temple, TB – Hon. Men. (2006, 2007)
- Derrick Washington, TB – 2nd Team (2008), Hon. Men. (2009)

Brian Jones has been a member of Gary Pinkel's coaching staff since 1992. He has coached an excellent running game for the last 16 seasons, after initially coaching wide receivers from 1992-94.

Jones and his troops rose to the challenge in 2010, as a talented group of tailbacks combined in committee style to rush for over 1,500 yards and 19 touchdowns as the Tiger run game ranked sixth in the Big 12 overall, averaging 156.38 yards per game (2,033 yards all told on the season). The quartet of De'Vion Moore, Kendial Lawrence, Henry Josey and Marcus Murphy all return in 2011, undoubtedly giving Jones one of the most experienced backfields in the nation.

In 2008, Jones took a first-year starter with limited prior experience, in true sophomore Derrick Washington, and helped mold him into one of the Big 12 Conference's top running backs. Washington became only the eighth running back in Mizzou history to rush for 1,000 yards in a season, as he tallied 1,036 on 177 carries (5.9 avg.) in 2008. He added 17 rushing touchdowns in his first year as a starter, which was just one shy of the school single season record.

The 2009 season saw the Tiger run game contribute with 1,651 yards, of which 1,342 came from the trio of junior Derrick Washington, sophomore De'Vion Moore and true freshman Kendial Lawrence. Washington earned honorable mention All-Big 12 acclaim for his season, which included 865 rushing yards and 10 touchdowns, to go with 26 receptions out of the backfield.

Of the eight Tiger running backs with 1,000-yard seasons, Jones has coached four of them in his time on the Mizzou sideline, including one each in three consecutive years, from 2006-08.

Jones helped develop Tony Temple into one of the top ball carriers in the Big 12 Conference in recent years, as the Kansas City, Mo., native ranked second in the league in rushing in 2006, with a career-high 1,063 yards and seven touchdowns, and followed with a 1,039-yard, 12-touchdown campaign in 2008, becoming the first running back in Mizzou history to claim multiple 1,000-yard seasons.

Temple closed his Tiger career in illustrious fashion, as he broke a 52-year old record by rushing for a Cotton Bowl-record 284 yards and four touchdowns in Mizzou's rout of Arkansas. The yardage total was also the second-most in the history of Division I-A bowl games.

With Mizzou's high-flying passing game getting most of the headlines, it's easy to overlook the fact that the Tigers also run the ball very well and very often. Mizzou ran for just under 2,500 yards in 2007 (2,467), and amassed 29 rushing touchdowns as well, providing a nice compliment to the air game. They followed with 2,153 yards and 28 rushing scores in 2008.

Temple earned honorable mention All-Big 12 status by league coaches in both 2006 and 2007. He also ran for 194 yards and two touchdowns in the 2006 Sun Bowl against Oregon State.

Despite their overall youth, and some injury problems for each one throughout the year, Jones' group made steady progress in 2005, and contributed heavily to MU's rushing attack, which ranked 3rd in the Big 12 Conference, and 17th in the NCAA, averaging 205.25 yards per game. Mizzou's tailbacks combined to rush for more than 1,100 yards and tallied 8 TDs in 2005, averaging a healthy 5.6 yards per carry. In May of 2006, Jones was one of only 25 coaches selected to participate in the prestigious NCAA Expert Coaches Academy.

Jones' backs rushed for over 1,200 yards and had 9 of MU's 13 rushing TDs on the season in 2004. They were led by junior Damien Nash, who had 792 yards and 7 TDs, and redshirt freshman Marcus Woods, who had 428 yards and 2 scores. Woods was named 1st-Team Freshman All-Big 12 for his efforts in 2004. Nash was a 5th-round draft pick by the Tennessee Titans in the 2005 NFL Draft.

Mizzou had one of the nation's most potent rushing attacks in 2003, as the Tigers pounded their way to 3,087 yards, good for a per-game average of 237.46 yards that ranked MU 1st in the Big 12 Conference and 6th in the NCAA statistics. It marked the first time since 1960 that MU won a conference rushing championship, when the Tigers led the old Big Eight with a mark of 249.3 yards per game. Missouri rushed for 38 touchdowns on the year, on the way to scoring a school single-season record 399 points.

Jones' workhorse from 2001-03 was tailback Zack Abron. Abron thrived under Jones' coaching and turned himself into one of the top backs in the Big 12 Conference. Abron rushed for a career-best 1,155 yards in 2003, making him only the 7th 1,000-yard rusher in MU history.

Abron set numerous career records in 2003, as he left MU holding the standard in rushing yards (3,198), touchdowns (42) and points (252). He improved his average yards per rush from 3.6 as a freshman in 2000 to a healthy 5.3 in 2003, and also worked with Jones to develop himself into a pass-catching threat out of the backfield. Abron was named 2nd-Team All-Big 12 in 2003 for his work, and went on to sign a free agent contract with the Atlanta Falcons following the 2004 Draft.

During Jones' last two seasons at Toledo, UT's running attack was ranked in the top-10 in the country. In 2000, the Rockets' running game ranked ninth in the country, racking up 253.8 yards per game. UT compiled 2,792 yards on the ground and averaged 5.43 yards per carry. In 1999, Toledo ranked 10th in the country in rushing, compiling 239.2 yards per outing and ranked No. 1 in the nation in yards per attempt (5.35). Jones' protégé Chester Taylor racked up 1,176 yards and ranked 20th in the country, while his rushing average of 6.5 yards per carry ranked second-best in the nation.

In 1995, Toledo led the league and ranked fifth in the nation in rushing, averaging 244.5 yards per game. The Rockets' starting tailback that season, Wasean Tait, broke 16 school records, including yards in a season (1,905) and touchdowns (20). Tait was the named the MAC Player of the Year and garnered second team All-America honors ranking second in the nation in rushing and third in scoring.

Jones came to Toledo from Lafayette College where he served as the wide receivers coach for one season. Prior to that, Jones served three years each as an assistant coach with the Massachusetts (1988-91) and Villanova (1984-87).

He also had coaching stints at Rensselear Polytechnic Institute (1983-84), Norwich (VT) University (1982-83) and the New York Institute of Technology (1981-82).

Jones was an offensive lineman at the University of Connecticut, where he earned a Bachelor of Science degree in marketing in 1980. He also holds a Master of Science degree in administration and physical education from Norwich (1983).

Jones was born in Jamaica and raised in New York City. He and his wife, Mary Kay, are the parents of sons Grant and Brandon, and daughter Audrey.

Craig Kuligowski is in his 20th season alongside Gary Pinkel, including his 16th season coaching the defensive line. One of the more underrated assistant coaches in the nation, Kuligowski has coached five Tigers to 1st-Team All-Big 12 honors, including three in the last four seasons – Lorenzo Williams in 2007, followed by Ziggy Hood in 2008 and Aldon Smith in 2010.

Smith is the latest in a long line of star linemen who have worked under Kuligowski's guidance at Mizzou. The 2010 season saw Smith earn 1st-Team All-Big 12 honors despite missing three games with a broken leg early in the year. Following his sophomore season, Smith chose to bypass his final two years of eligibility and was a first-round draft pick in April's NFL Draft.

Smith wasn't the only Kuligowski protégé to earn acclaim in 2010, as five linemen in all took home honors, including sophomore end Brad Madison (2nd-Team), junior end Jacquies Smith (Hon. Men.), junior tackle Terrell Resonno (Hon. Men.)

Coach "Kul" debuted a star pupil in 2009 – redshirt freshman end Aldon Smith – who turned out to be one of the top freshmen in the entire nation. Smith was named the Big 12 Conference Defensive Freshman/Newcomer of the Year, in unanimous fashion, and he also earned 3rd-Team All-American honors, as well as 1st-Team Freshman All-American honors for his outstanding play in 2009.

Smith broke the MU single-season quarterback sacks record in 2009, with 11.5 to surpass the old mark of 11 set in 2000 by former All-American Justin Smith. Aldon Smith also had 19 tackles for loss in his first year on the field for Mizzou, and he led all of the nation's freshmen in both sacks and tackles for loss. Smith was joined by senior Jaron Baston (2nd-Team All-Big 12) in receiving all-conference honors in 2009.

Kuligowski's defensive line was stout against the run in 2009, as it helped the Tiger defense to a national ranking of 26th against the run (allowing 118.62 yards per game). The ranking and yards allowed were the lowest by any Mizzou defense against the run since the 1983 team ranked 5th in the country with an average of 97.70 yards per game.

Hood, and another star disciple, defensive end Stryker Sulak (who earned 2nd-Team All-Big 12 mention in both 2007 and 2008) were invited to participate in the 2009 NFL Combine, and both were eventually taken in the 2009 NFL Draft, with Hood going in the first round with the 32nd overall pick by the defending Super Bowl Champion Pittsburgh Steelers, with Sulak going in the 6th round to the Oakland Raiders.

In 2007, Kuligowski coached all four of his starters on the Tiger defensive line to at least honorable mention All-Big 12 honors, including Lorenzo Williams, who claimed 1st-Team mention for his outstanding play.

The 2006 season also saw Kuligowski's pupils succeed at a high level, as he coached standout defensive ends Brian Smith, Xzavie Jackson and tackle Lorenzo Williams to All-Big 12 honors, with Smith earning 2nd-Team mention, while Jackson and Williams won their first-ever honorable mention acclaim.

Facing arguably the biggest rebuilding job at any position on the team in 2005, Kuligowski oversaw a defensive line that grew into a solid unit, despite losing three starters from 2004 to the NFL. Junior defensive end Brian Smith blossomed into an every-down player, and had a monster year, ranking among the best in the Big 12 Conference with 9 QB sacks, 17 tackles for loss and 12 QB hurries, to go along with his career-high total of 66 tackles. Smith earned 2nd-Team All-Big 12 accolades for his performance.

Kuligowski's line was a focal point for the Tiger defense in 2004, and a major reason for the overall improvement of the defense. Three of his pupils – tackles Atiyyah Ellison and C.J. Mosley, and end Brian Smith – earned various All-Big 12 honors for their play in 2004, with Ellison and Mosley pulling in 1st-Team distinction. Redshirt freshman Lorenzo Williams also earned 1st-Team Freshman All-Big 12 honors by The Sporting News.

Two of Kuligowski's protégés were drafted as part of the 2005 NFL Draft, as tackles Atiyyah Ellison (3rd round) and C.J. Mosley (6th round) were picked by the Carolina Panthers and Minnesota Vikings, respectively. Later, defensive end Zach Ville signed a free agent deal with the Kansas City Chiefs.

Under Kuligowski's leadership, the Tiger defensive line proved to be the strength of MU's defense in 2002. Keith Wright led the Big 12 Conference, and ranked in the top-10 nationally, with 23 tackles for loss in 2002, while Antwaun Bynum ranked among conference leaders in sacks, fumbles forced and tackles for loss.

Bynum earned first team All-Big 12 honors in 2002, and was named an honorable mention All-American by CNNSI.com, while Wright was a first team All-Big 12 pick by various outlets. Wright's development led to him being a 6th-round selection by the Houston Texans in the 2003 NFL Draft.

Kuligowski was credited with building one of the top defensive lines in the MAC during his tenure at Toledo. In 2000, the Rockets were ranked fifth in the country in rushing defense, allowing just 81.5 yards per game and 2.46 yards per carry. They were ranked third in the country in scoring defense, third in total defense and No. 1 in turnover margin.

Kuligowski was a four-year standout at Toledo (1987-90) as an offensive tackle. He was named first team All-MAC two straight years and helped lead UT to the MAC title his senior year. He was an integral part of the 1990 offense that turned in totals of 135 rushing first downs, 2,474 rushing yards and 4,335 total yards, all top five marks in Toledo history.

Kuligowski earned a bachelor of business administration degree from Toledo in 1991. He and his wife Mary have two daughters: Peyton and Madeline, and son Max, who was born in March of 2005.

Barry Odom

Safeties
9th Year at Mizzou

Missouri, 1999

ODOM'S ALL-BIG 12 PERFORMERS

- Jasper Simmons, S – Hon. Men. (2009)
- Jarrell Harrison, S – Hon. Men. (2010)

In his ninth year on staff at Mizzou is former Tiger standout linebacker Barry Odom. After serving for six seasons in various administrative roles, the former high school head coach took the opportunity to get back into the coaching side in February of 2009, when he was named the Tigers' new safeties coach by Head Coach Gary Pinkel.

A valuable part of the football program's operations since 2003, Odom showed his versatility when he jumped into recruiting responsibilities in December of 2008 to fill the void when former Tiger assistant Dave Christensen left to become head coach at the University of Wyoming just after MU's 2008 Alamo Bowl victory. Odom's hard work and personable nature helped secure the signings of several in-state standouts, as well as getting a late commitment from Louisiana's L'Damian Washington. He's also been the lead recruiter on a handful of signees with MU's 2010 recruiting class which was ranked 21st nationally by Rivals.com – marking the highest-ranked class in Tiger history.

The 2010 season saw the Tiger defense emerge as one of the most improved in the nation, as well as one of the top overall units in the Big 12 Conference. Despite playing against high-scoring Big 12 offenses each week, the Tigers led the Big 12 and ranked 6th nationally in scoring defense, allowing just 16.08 points per game. Additionally, thanks to the play of his safeties, Mizzou ranked 11th nationally in pass efficiency defense, holding opposing quarterbacks to a rating of just 108.45.

Senior Jarrell Harrison emerged as a solid playmaker in 2010 under Odom's direction, and he closed the year by being named an honorable mention All-Big 12 performer.

In his first year on the coaching staff, Odom oversaw the rapid development in first-year junior college transfer Jasper Simmons into an instant impact player. Simmons earned honorable mention All-Big 12 status for his play in 2009, as he also received votes for the Big 12 Defensive Newcomer of the Year. Simmons ended his season ranking fourth on the team with 73 tackles, and added two forced fumbles, one recovered fumble and an interception which helped seal Mizzou's win against Big 12 North rival Iowa State.

Odom made the jump to the collegiate ranks in 2002 after spending three seasons at the high school level, including a very successful two-year stint as head coach at Columbia's Rock Bridge High School.

The 2008 season was Odom's second as Director of Football Operations, after handling the duties of Director of Football Recruiting for the previous two seasons. Prior to the 2007 season, he added assistant athletic director to his title. Some of the many duties he performed in that role included overseeing the coordination of the team's travel plans, oversight of the football budget, handling compliance issues, scheduling of facilities, assisting with recruiting operations and managing the day-to-day overall operations for the football program.

Odom also coordinated all public relations activities and community service events that required the presence of football student-athletes, and oversaw all organizational aspects from a football perspective related to Mizzou's 2007 Cotton Bowl and 2008 Alamo Bowl trips.

He also served a key role as part of the design and planning team for MU's $16 million expansion and renovation project of the Mizzou Athletics Training Complex which is the state-of-the-art day-to-day home for the Tiger football program.

Odom, a native of Maysville, Okla. who graduated from Ada High School, was a four-year letterman at linebacker for Mizzou from 1996-99. He was a key player on MU squads that went to bowl games in 1997 and 1998, and he ended his career ranked 5th on the school's career tackles list, with 362 stops.

Odom graduated from MU in December of 1999, and served as a development intern for the Tiger Scholarship Fund, assisting with various fund raising projects for Tiger Athletics while earning his Master's in education from MU. He returned to his home state of Oklahoma in July of 2000 to serve as an assistant coach for Ada High School, which finished that season as runners-up for a state championship.

Odom returned to Columbia in the spring of 2001 as head coach of Rock Bridge High School, and he quickly built the Bruins into a power, as they went 6-4 and won a conference championship that fall. He followed with an 8-4 campaign in 2002 that saw Rock Bridge reach the semifinals of the state championship playoffs.

Born Nov. 26, 1976 in Lawton, Okla., Odom and his wife, Tritia, were married in July of 2000. Tritia is a native of Kahoka, Mo., and is a graduate of MU's College of Human Environmental Sciences. The couple has two sons – James Trump Odom and Garyt Robert.

- Will Ebner, LB – Hon. Men. (2009)
- Andrew Gachkar, LB – 1st-Team (2010)
- Zaviar Gooden, LB – Hon. Men. (2010)

Dave Steckel is in his 11th season at Missouri as the Tigers' linebacker coach, and the 2011 campaign will be his third with the added duties of defensive coordinator – a position he was awarded with in February of 2009.

That moved paid great dividends for the Tigers in 2010, as Steckel's defense emerged into one of the most improved in the nation last season. Mizzou led the Big 12 Conference, and ranked 6th in the nation, in scoring defense, allowing only 16.08 points per game in the high-scoring Big 12.

Steckel's linebacking corps was decimated by injuries throughout the year, but that didn't stop his troops from turning in big performances each week. Senior Andrew Gachkar developed into one of the top linebackers in the league, and he was named a 1st-Team All-Big 12 performer, giving Steckel a 1st-Team All-Big 12 linebacker for the fifth-straight year (Sean Weatherspoon – 2007, 2008, 2009). Gachkar (who was drafted in the 7th round of the 2011 NFL Draft by San Diego) ranked second on the team with 84 tackles, just one shy of fellow linebacker Zaviar Gooden, a sophomore who was named honorable-mention All-Big 12 for leading MU with 85 stops in his first year as a starter.

Under Steckel, the Missouri defense followed the fire of its new coordinator in 2009 with an attacking style of play. The Tiger rush defense excelled, thanks to his linebackers and a stout defensive line, and ended the season ranked 26th in the NCAA against the run (118.62 avg.) – that figure is the lowest rushing average allowed in a season by a Tiger defense since the 1983 squad ranked 5th nationally with an average of 97.70 per game.

Sean Weatherspoon concluded his stellar Tiger career by winning 2nd-Team All-American honors, as well as being named a 1st-Team All-Big 12 performer for the third straight year – making him the first Tiger in the Big 12 era to achieve 1st-Team all-league status three times. Weatherspoon ended third on MU's career tackles chart, and was eventually a first-round selection by the Atlanta Falcons in the 2010 NFL Draft (number 19 overall selection). Sophomore Will Ebner also earned honorable mention All-Big 12 honors for his play, .

Steckel's group helped lead the Tiger defense in 2008, with junior Sean Weatherspoon commanding the lion's share of attention. "Spoon" turned in a very impressive season that saw him earn 1st-Team All-Big 12 acclaim, as well as 3rd-Team All-American honors, based on his 155 tackles. He was also named a finalist for the prestigious Butkus Award, and he repeated in 2009 as a finalist for the award again.

Weatherspoon was joined in the 100-tackle club in 2008 by senior Brock Christopher, who totaled a career-high 105 stops in his final season in a Tiger uniform. Christopher won honorable-mention All-Big 12 honors for his play for a second straight year in 2008.

Steckel returned to Gary Pinkel's coaching staff in 2001 after spending five seasons as the linebacker and defensive line coach at Rutgers University.

Steckel helped mold James Kinney into a prolific tackler, as he ended his Tiger career by breaking the MU career tackles record (434) during his senior season of 2004. Kinney led MU in stops in 2004, with 112, making him the first player in school history to record three consecutive seasons of 100 or more tackles. He earned 1st-Team All-Big 12 honors for his efforts, and signed a free-agent deal with the Jacksonville Jaguars after the 2005 NFL Draft.

In his 10 seasons at Mizzou, Steckel has had at least one of his linebackers earn all-league recognition each year, including two each in the 2001, 2002, 2003, 2006, 2007, 2008, 2009 and 2010 seasons.

The 2006 season featured stellar play from senior standouts Marcus Bacon and Dedrick Harrington. Bacon earned 1st-Team All-Big 12 acclaim for his play that featured a team-best 112 tackles. Harrington had his best season as a Tiger, as he totaled a career-high 100 stops.

One of MU's top recruiters, Steckel has helped land numerous all-stars for Mizzou, primarily out of the state of Texas. He was responsible for the successful recruitment of Chase Daniel, who was named the EA Sports National High School Player of the Year. Daniel lettered as a true freshman at MU in 2005 and just two years later was a Heisman Trophy finalist, finishing fourth in the 2007 Heisman voting. Steckel was able to attend the prestigious ceremony in New York City that December.

Two of Steckel's stars were honored for their play in 2003, as Kinney was named 2nd-Team All-Big 12 by the Associated Press, while Barnes earned Honorable Mention acclaim by both league coaches and media. Barnes impressed enough people that he eventually signed a free agent contract following the 2004 NFL Draft with the Baltimore Ravens, and later played for the Washington Redskins.

At Rutgers, Steckel coached two all-conference defensive linemen from 1996-99, both of whom went on to play in the NFL. In 2000, Steckel moved to coach the linebackers.

Before Rutgers, Steckel coached the defensive line for Pinkel at Toledo from 1992-95. He was the defensive line coach during the 1995 undefeated season that went on to win the Las Vegas Bowl. Steckel helped coach a defensive unit that ranked No. 1 in the Mid-American Conference and 12th nationally. One of those players, Dan Williams, was the 11th overall selection in the 1993 NFL Draft.

Steckel served in the United States Marine Corps from 1975-78. He then went on to graduate from Kutztown State College and earned a master's from Miami (Ohio) in 1982.

He is married to the former Mary Beth Thomas of Floyd's Knob, Ind. They have one beautiful daughter named Amanda.

WALKER'S ALL-BIG 12 PERFORMERS

- Dwayne Blakley, TE – Hon. Men. (2001)
- J.D. McCoy, TE – Hon. Men. (2003)
- Martin Rucker, TE – 2nd-Team Freshman All-American (2004), Hon. Men. (2005), 1st-Team (2006), Consensus 1st-Team All-American (2007), 1st-Team (2007)
- Chase Coffman, TE – 1st-Team Freshman All-American (2005), 1st-Team (2006, 2008), 2nd-Team (2007), Mackey Award Winner (2008), Consensus 1st-Team All-American (2008)
- Elvis Fisher, T – Hon. Men. (2009, 2010)
- Kurtis Gregory, G – Hon. Men. (2009)
- Dan Hoch, T – Hon. Men. (2009), 2nd-Team (2010)
- Tim Barnes, C – 1st-Team (2010)
- Austin Wuebbels, G – Hon. Men. (2010)

Bruce Walker made a move in 2009 to serve as co-offensive line coach, a position he had assisted with for the previous 13 seasons under Gary Pinkel, while also being in charge of the tight ends. He made a name for himself one of the top tight ends coaches in the nation the past several years, as he helped develop Martin Rucker and Chase Coffman into two of the most accomplished players in the nation. Each won consensus 1st-Team All-American honors in 2007 (Rucker) and 2008 (Coffman), and Coffman capped his record-breaking career by winning the John Mackey Tight End Award, given annually to the nation's top player at that position. Coffman became the first Tiger in history to win a national individual honor that is specific to a position group.

In Walker's first year as co-offensive coach in 2009, his group excelled at protecting first-year starting quarterback Blaine Gabbert. Thanks to the line's work, Mizzou ranked 14th in the nation in passing while allowing only 20 sacks in 13 games. Three of Walker's linemen – senior Kurtis Gregory (2nd-Team), and sophomores Elvis Fisher (Hon. Men.) and Dan Hoch (Hon. Men.) – all earned Big 12 award status. Gregory eventually earned an invitation to the NFL Combine for his stellar play.

It was more of the same from Walker's group in 2010, as the Tiger offensive line helped pave the way for an attack that ranked 35th in the nation, averaging 409.62 yards per game as Mizzou won 10 games for only the fourth time in school history. Four of Walker's starting five on the line earned some level of all-conference honors, including senior center Tim Barnes (1st-Team), junior tackle Dan Hoch (2nd-Team), junior tackle Elvis Fisher (Hon. Men.) and junior guard Austin Wuebbels (Hon. Men.).

From 2004-08, Walker had the luxury of working with the best pair of tight ends in the nation, in Martin Rucker and Chase Coffman. Rucker culminated his outstanding Tiger career with an award-winning season in 2007, as he was a consensus 1st-Team All-American, becoming MU's first All-American tight end since the great Kellen Winslow in 1978. Rucker caught an MU-record 84 passes in 2007 for 834 yards and 8 touchdowns, while also being a finalist for the John Mackey Tight End Award. Rucker was selected in the fourth round of the 2008 NFL Draft by the Cleveland Browns.

Coffman caught 90 passes for 987 yards and 10 touchdowns in 2008, despite missing two games due to injury, and he ended his career with school records of 247 receptions and 30 touchdowns, to go with the 2nd-most receiving yardage in MU history (2,659). He was a third-round NFL Draft pick in 2009 by the Cincinnati Bengals.

Each player won 1st-Team All-Big 12 honors in 2006 (Rucker from coaches, Coffman from media), and Coffman was a semi-finalist for the John Mackey Award. The duo combined to catch 111 passes for 1,149 yards and 14 touchdowns in 2006.

In 2005, Rucker earned honorable mention All-Big 12 honors after leading MU with 47 catches for 567 yards and 1 TD, with his catches ranking 1st among Big 12 tight ends in 2005, and 2nd-most in MU single-season history for the position. Coffman, despite being a true freshman, was nothing but impressive from day one in fall camp, as he tied Rucker with 47 catches for 503 yards and 4 TDs. Those numbers ranked at the time as the 3rd-best single-season performance in MU tight end history, and earned the rookie a spot on the Rivals.com Freshman All-American 1st-Team.

In 2004, the tight ends were instrumental in MU's passing attack, with the primary weapons being senior Victor Sesay and redshirt freshman Martin Rucker. Rucker earned 2nd-Team Freshman All-American honors for his standout rookie year that saw him grab 19 balls for 263 yards and 4 TDs, the latter of which was the 2nd-best total on the squad. Sesay signed a free agent contract following the 2005 NFL Draft with the Miami Dolphins.

In 2001, Missouri tight ends combined for 50 receptions, 484 yards and eight touchdowns. Dwayne Blakley was tabbed honorable mention All-Big 12 after pulling in 34 receptions for 362 yards and four touchdowns. He went on to sign a free agent contract with the NFL's Kansas City Chiefs and later started for the Atlanta Falcons.

Walker has successfully recruited some of the best high school players out of the state of Texas while at Mizzou. Walker signed highly-regarded all-state defensive end Brian Smith (Denton) in 2002 and all-state wide receiver Thomson Omboga (Grand Prairie) in 2001. Smith went on to become Mizzou's alltime career quarterback sacks leader and was drafted by the NFL's Jacksonville Jaguars. Walker also inked Jacquies Smith of Dallas, who made big impressions while earning significant playing time in 2008 as a true freshman defensive end. His recruiting bounty of several stars in 2010 helped the Tiger recruiting class garner a national ranking of 21st-best in the nation – the highest a Tiger class has ever been ranked.

While at Toledo, Walker coached two of the best tight ends to ever wear a Rockets' uniform. From 1998-2000, Walker coached All-MAC tight end Mike Bilik, who finished his career with 75 receptions. He also coached Lyle Green, who was voted the team's most valuable receiver in 1999 and a co-captain in 2000. Green was the third overall pick in the 2001 CFL Draft.

In 1993, behind Walker's offensive line, the Central Washington led all NAIA schools in total offense. CWU also ranked first in the NAIA in rushing, averaging 198.5 yards per game. In 1995, the Wildcats earned a share of the NAIA national title, tying Findlay (OH) in the title game.

The quarterback of that team, Jon Kitna, finished his career with 12,907 yards in total offense and 12,353 passing yards, the best and second-best, respectively, in NAIA Division II history.

Walker graduated from Eastmont High School in East Wenatchee, Wash., where he earned All-Mid Valley League honors at linebacker and center. He played two seasons at Yakima Valley College before Central Washington.

A 1983 graduate of CWU, where he earned a bachelor of science degree in business administration, Walker was a two-year starter for the Wildcats at center. He earned a Master of Science degree in physical education in 1989.

Walker and wife, Sharryn, are the parents of Natalie and Maggie.

- Grant Ressel, PK – 1st-Team All-American (2009), 1st-Team (2009), Hon. Men. (2010)

Assistant Coach David Yost has been with Gary Pinkel for the past 15 seasons in a variety of capacities, and the 2011 campaign will be his 11th season at Mizzou. Pinkel's recruiting coordinator since 1997, Yost also coaches the Tigers quarterbacks coach and placekickers.

Prior to the 2009 season, Yost assumed the added role of offensive coordinator, and in the last two seasons, he helped guide an attack which featured the arm of quarterback Blaine Gabbert, who was a first-round NFL Draft pick this April. Under Gabbert, the Tigers won 10 games in 2010 for only the fourth time in school history, as MU ranked 35th nationally in yards per game (409.62 avg.). Gabbert closed his three-year Tiger career by throwing for 434 yards – an MU bowl game record – in the 2010 Insight Bowl against Iowa.

In Yost's first season as coordinator, the Tiger offense ranked 14th in the nation in passing, averaging 285.46 yards per game, despite the relative inexperience of first-year starting quarterback Blaine Gabbert. In all, the Tiger offense ranked 32nd in the nation in total offense, averaging 412.46 yards per game, and just under 30 points per outing.

Gabbert continued MU's recent success at the quarterback position, following in the footsteps of Tiger legends Chase Daniel and Brad Smith. Gabbert completed his sophomore season by throwing for 3,593 yards (the 3rd-most in MU single-season history) and 24 touchdowns. Gabbert earned honorable mention All-Big 12 status for his play in 2009, and is likely to be considered one of the top signal callers in the nation heading into the 2010 season.

As if that weren't enough for his ledger, Yost helped mold first-year starting kicker Grant Ressel into an automatic machine who won 1st-Team All-American honors for his near flawless 2009 season. Ressel stepped into the kicking job vacated by former record-setting Jeff Wolfert, and one-upped Wolfert, who left holding the NCAA career accuracy record for combined kicks. All Ressel did in his first year as a starter was break the NCAA single-season accuracy mark for combined kicks, as he connected on an amazing 65-of-66 total kicks, including 26-of-27 field goals and 39-of-39 extra points. Ressel led the nation in field goal accuracy, in addition to his NCAA season record. Those feats were good enough to earn him 1st-Team All-Big 12 acclaim as well. He followed with another stellar year in 2010, as Ressel made 17-of-19 field goals and 45-of-47 extra points.

Yost has been instrumental in the development of MU's renowned spread attack. The Tigers broke numerous offensive school records in 2008, thanks to the play of Yost's star pupil, quarterback Chase Daniel. In putting together only the third 10-win season in school history, the Tigers established records for points (591), points per game (42.2) and passing yards (4,625), just to name a few.

Daniel had an amazing three-year run as a starter come to a close in 2008, and he left holding virtually every major passing and total offense record on the books. The 22 wins amassed over the 2007 and 2008 seasons ranked third nationally during that stretch, trailing only Oklahoma and USC.

Daniel caught the nation's attention during the 2007 season, as he amassed 4,559 yards of total offense (ranking 7th in the NCAA) and 4,306 passing yards with 33 touchdowns while leading MU to a record 12 wins and a final No. 4 Associated Press top-25 ranking. That December, a proud Yost got to join Daniel for an experience of a lifetime, as Daniel was one of four invitees to the Heisman Trophy ceremony in New York City, where he finished fourth in final voting.

Yost has established himself as one of the best recruiting coordinators in the country, as evidenced by MU's recent classes, most of which were ranked among the nation's top 35 according to various outlets, including the 2010 class which was ranked 21st-best – MU's highest-ever ranked class. The 2008 class was MU's previous best, at 24th, and that was preceded by the 2007 class (32nd-best), the 2004 class which ranked 27th-best, and the 2003 class which was the 28th-best, all according to Rivals.com. He has also been instrumental in helping attract some highly-touted student-athletes to Mizzou, most recently among those Blaine Gabbert from the St. Louis, Mo. area, who was rated as the nation's top-rated pro-style quarterback prospect.

He is also known for his work with former record-setting quarterback Brad Smith. Yost helped guide Smith through four magical seasons that saw him break an eye-popping 69 different Mizzou, Big 12 and NCAA game, season and career records. Under Yost's tutelage, Smith became the greatest run-pass dual threat QB in NCAA Division I-A history, as he was the first to throw for 8,000 yards and rush for 4,000 yards in a career. In 2005 alone, Smith amassed 2,304 yards in the air and 1,301 more on the ground – making him the first player in NCAA D-IA history to reach the 2,000/1,000 mark twice in a career.

With Smith gone to the NFL (he was a 4th-round draft pick in 2006 by the New York Jets), Yost helped develop sophomore Chase Daniel into one of the most prolific passers in school history. As a first-year starter, Daniel earned 2nd-Team All-Big 12 status for an outstanding season that saw him shatter numerous records. He ended the year ranking 5th in the nation in total offense, averaging 300.5 yards per contest.

Yost oversaw the transformation of previously unheralded walk-on Jeff Wolfert into one of the best Cinderella stories in all of college football. Wolfert, who won the kicking job in fall camp just prior to the 2006 season, had kicked in just one high school game before coming to MU as a scholarship diver on the men's swim team. Wolfert was an all-conference diver in 2004-05, but spurned his diving scholarship to pursue his dream of kicking. After seeing no action as a walk-on in 2005, Wolfert emerged from the pack in camp and was simply amazing as he connected on an MU record 18 field goals (in 20 attempts) and was a perfect 45-of-45 on extra points.

Wolfert followed his surprising 2006 season with an even better year in 2007, as he made an amazing 88-of-92 combined kicks (21-of-25 field goals, 67-of-67 extra points) and won honorable mention All-America honors by Sports Illustrated, while winning 1st-Team All-Big 12 acclaim as he scored an MU single-season record 130 points. He closed his career in 2008 by repeating as a 1st-Team All-Big 12 pick, and ended as the most accurate kicker in NCAA history for combined field goals and extra points (185-of-185 extra points, 59-of-72 field goals).

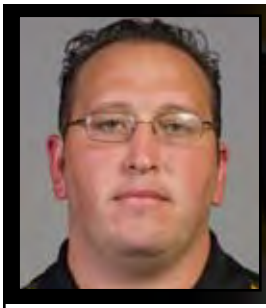
The 2002 season saw Yost guide Smith, a redshirt freshman, during an historical season as he became only the second player in NCAA Division I-A history to throw for 2,000 yards and rush for 1,000 yards in a season.

Smith was at it again in 2003, as he broke his own single-season total offense record, with 3,383 yards. He ended the season with 1,977 passing yards and rushed for 1,406 yards, the latter of which is the No. 2 single-season rushing mark in MU history.

From 1997 to 2000, Yost held the same responsibilities for Pinkel at Toledo. He spent four seasons coaching two of the most productive quarterbacks in Toledo history in Tavares Bolden and Chris Wallace. Bolden developed into one of the most versatile signal-callers in the MAC.

Prior to Bolden, Yost coached Chris Wallace from 1997-98, one of the top quarterbacks in Toledo history. Yost came to Toledo from Tiffin University, where he coordinated the offense along with coaching quarterbacks and receivers in 1995. During the 1994 season, he coached wide receivers.

A native of Carrollton, Ohio, Yost spent time coaching his former high school team after graduating from Kent State University. A graduate of Kent State, Yost earned a Bachelor of Arts degree in early childhood education in 1992. He has done graduate work in educational psychology. He was married to the former Carrie Crossett, a former soccer student-athlete at Mizzou (and sister of former MU kicker Adam Crossett) in June of 2005, and the couple had their first child, daughter Kennedy Caroline, in December of 2006. Son, Keaton, was born in December of 2008, and son Kamden was born in April of 2011.



Nick Otterbacher

Director of Football Recruiting
8th Year at Mizzou
Tampa, Fla.
Toledo, 2002

In his eighth year as part of the Tiger coaching staff – and fifth in his title of director of football recruiting – is Nick Otterbacher. He assumed those duties after serving as an offensive graduate assistant coach for the 2006 season, when he helped coach a Tiger offense that broke numerous school records and ranked eighth in the nation in total offense (425.62 yards per game).

In his current role, Otterbacher oversees organizational efforts of virtually all aspects of MU's extensive recruiting program operations, such as coordinating on-and-off campus visits, mailings and other logistical arrangements. Mizzou's 2010 recruiting class was ranked 21st-best in the nation according to Rivals.com, which marked the highest-ever ranking for a Tiger class of recruits. The 2009 class was another highly-regarding group of athletes that Otterbacher helped assemble for the program.

Otterbacher served as an offensive graduate assistant coach for the 2005 and 2006 seasons, after serving on staff as an administrative graduate assistant in 2004.

A native of Tampa, Fla., Otterbacher was a four-year starter at center for the University of Toledo, where he played under Tiger Head Coach Gary Pinkel through the 2000 season. In his four-year playing career, Otterbacher was part of Toledo teams that went a combined 34-13 from 1998-2001, and won or shared three Mid-American Athletic Conference championships, while playing in the Motor City Bowl in 2001.

After graduating from Toledo with a degree in business management in May of 2002, Otterbacher got his start in coaching at Duquesne University, where he served as the tight ends and assistant offensive line coach for the 2002 season which saw Duquesne post an 11-1 record and claim the Metro Atlantic Conference championship.

He then went to West Virginia Tech as an assistant coach, and was the offensive line coach and run game coordinator and recruiting coordinator for the 2003 season, prior to joining the Mizzou staff in July of 2004.

He and his wife, Jessica, have a daughter, Reagan, and a son, Kaine Charles Cotton Otterbacher, who was born in Dallas, Texas, the week of MU's 2008 Cotton Bowl victory over Arkansas.

Dan Hopkins

Director of Football Operations
5th Year at Mizzou
Harrisonville, Mo.
Missouri, 2004

Dan Hopkins, a 2004 University of Missouri graduate, is in his third season as Director of Football Operations, after being promoted to that post prior to the 2009 season. Previously, he spent two years as the Tiger Football staff's administrative graduate assistant.

In his current role, Hopkins is involved in a wide variety of important administrative duties that involve the Tiger program.

Some of his many duties include overseeing the coordination of the team's travel plans, oversight of the football budget, handling compliance issues, scheduling of facilities, assisting with recruiting operations and managing the day-to-day overall operations for the football program. He was also a lead figure in planning and executing the Tigers' trips to Houston, Texas for the 2009 Texas Bowl and last winter to the Phoenix, Ariz. area for the 2010 Insight Bowl.

Hopkins also is responsible for coordinating all public relations activities and community service events that require the presence of football student-athletes.

The Harrisonville, Mo. native made a return to his alma mater prior to the 2007 season as a graduate assistant coach, where he assisted the Tiger coaching staff with various recruiting administrative duties throughout the year, as well as lending a hand with scouting and game preparation efforts during the season.

A 2004 graduate of the Missouri School of Journalism, Hopkins served as a student assistant coach for the Mizzou Football team for the 2003 and 2004 seasons. Following his graduation, he served as quarterbacks and wide receivers coach at William Jewell College for two seasons, before moving to Central Missouri State University, where he was the defensive graduate assistant coach for the 2006 season.

Hopkins is currently pursuing his Master's degree in health education and promotion at Mizzou.

Kathryn Lucchesi

3rd Year at Mizzou
Director of Football Multimedia
Springfield, Ill.
Missouri, 2009

Kathryn Lucchesi is beginning her third football season overall, and her first at a newly created position – Director of Football Multimedia. She takes on this new title after spending two very successful seasons as the program's Multimedia Graduate Assistant, where she helped increase the reach and profile of Mizzou Football in various social media platforms.

You can usually find Lucchesi on the sideline of football games and practices shooting highlights. She shoots and edits numerous videos and photos for the team's newest web site and blog, WeAreMizzou.com. She also assists the Tiger coaching staff with various recruiting duties throughout the year.

A graduate of the Missouri School of Journalism, with an emphasis in Broadcasting, Lucchesi joined the Mizzou staff in the fall of 2009 as a graduate assistant, where she helped the program grow in the social media world.

Before working with the athletic department, Lucchesi was a reporter and anchor at KOMU-TV8 in Columbia. She began as a news reporter, but focused her stories on sports during her last year at the television station, and she contributed heavily to the This Week In Mizzou Football television show throughout the season.

She is currently working toward her Master's Degree at the University of Missouri.

(NOTE — The passing efficiency formula has been used by the NCAA since 1979 to rate quarterbacks. The formula assumes that touchdowns are as good as interceptions are bad; therefore, these two figures offset each other for the average player. To determine Efficiency Rating Points, multiply a passer's yards per attempt by 8.4, add his completion percentage, add his touchdown percentage times 3.3, then subtract his interception percentage times two. 100 points is considered average.)

THE ASSOCIATED PRESS RANKINGS

Beginning in 1936, the Associated Press polled a group of broadcasters and sports writers from around the nation, asking them to rank the various college football teams. Although other polls have come and gone, the AP's is the only one that has run in the nation's newspapers every year since 1936.

From this point forward, AP rankings for Missouri and its opponents are listed. A number in parenthesis appearing before an opponent's name indicates Missouri's ranking. A number in parenthesis appearing after an opponent's name is its ranking. "R" indicates a team was receiving votes.

'THE 5th DOWN' — A GAME TO REMEMBER; A GAME TO FORGET

One of college football's most historic games took place on Faurot Field on Oct. 6, 1990, when the eventual national champion Colorado Buffaloes pulled out a 33-31 victory, scoring the winning touchdown on what turned out to be a fifth down on the last play of the game.

With MU leading 31-27, Colorado embarked on a frantic march down the field in the final minute of play. Gaining a first down at the MU three-yard line, with 31 seconds to play, CU quarterback Charles Johnson spiked the ball to stop the clock. After regrouping, Eric Bieniemy charged up the middle to the one-yard line and Colorado called its final time out. Eighteen seconds remained.

It was here that the officials failed to notify the chain crew to flip the down marker from 2nd to 3rd down. When play resumed, Bieniemy tried to go over the top but was thrust backward by Tom Reiner, Mike Ringgenberg and Maurice Benson. The clock reached eight seconds, and officials ordered it stopped momentarily to clear the pileup.

Then, on what was fourth down, Johnson spiked the ball again. With two seconds to play, Johnson squirted over right tackle Mark VanderPoel. Hit by Reiner and Ringgenberg, he rolled over and extended the ball into the endzone and the officials signalled touchdown.

Pandemonium reigned for more than 20 minutes as those in attendance tried to determine just what had happened. But, with time expired, there was no avenue for appeal. What had appeared to be a major upset victory for the Tigers went into the record books as a bitter pill to swallow.

Colorado went on to win the Big Eight Conference championship, and with a victory over Notre Dame in the Orange Bowl, claimed a share of the national championship.

Here's how the play-by-play read of the game's final five plays:

1-G-MU 3	Charles Johnson pass incomplete
2-G-MU 3	Eric Bieniemy runs middle, gain of 2 (Tom Reiner)
3-G-MU 1	Bieniemy runs middle, no gain (Reiner, Maurice Benson)

Memorial Stadium/Faurot Field History

The storied history of Memorial Stadium/Faurot Field combines the best of old and new. Opened in 1926, the stadium has seen tremendous growth throughout the years, but Tiger fans are proud of the traditional feel and atmosphere the stadium lends itself to on game day.

The newest addition to the game-day atmosphere was unveiled prior to the 2009 home opener, when a high-definition video board debuted. With a video display spanning 80-feet by 31 1/2 feet, the new display give Tiger fans some of the best HD viewing in the Midwest, to go along with an improved sound system throughout the stadium.

Among the features installed prior to the 2003 season was a state-of-the-art artificial playing surface, called FieldTurf. The project to convert the old natural grass surface (on which Mizzou played from 1995-2000) began in April of 2003 and was completed on June 26th. FieldTurf provides the reliability and consistency of artificial surfaces, but is head and shoulders above all other projects in terms of offering the look and feel, and safety of natural grass. The Tigers enjoyed great success on the surface in 2003, as Mizzou went a perfect 6-0 at Faurot Field, setting a school record for most home wins in a season.

That record has since been tied three times, as the Tigers used the home field advantage to post records of 6-1 in 2006 and 6-0 in both 2007 and 2010 at Faurot Field. Entering the 2011 season, the Tigers have won 30 of their last 35 there overall.

The stadium, built at a cost of $350,000, was the product of Coach Gwinn Henry's championship seasons of 1924-25, and a vision of athletic director Chester L. Brewer. It was carved out of "a sizeable natural valley that lay between twin bluffs south of the University," chronicled Bob Broeg, longtime sports editor of the St. Louis Post-dispatch, and unofficial historian of Missouri football.

Though the seating capacity is listed at 71,004, crowds in excess of 75,000 have seen the Tigers play in Columbia—against Texas in 1979, and a record 75,298 against Penn State in 1980.

Mizzou packed in a modern-day record crowd of 71,004 on Oct. 24, 2009 against Texas – marking the largest crowd to see a game at Faurot Field since 1983. That was matched in 2010 against Oklahoma during Mizzou's memorable Homecoming win over the top-ranked Sooners.

Mizzou's average attendance for six home games in 2008 was a stout 64,520, which was the highest season average since 1980, followed by an average of 64,120 in 2009.

Coach Don Faurot's powerhouse Split "T" teams in the late '30's and '40's helped pay off the stadium bonds—along the Faurot's brave scheduling of Ohio State for nine straight years at Columbus, and big paydays from games with NYU and Fordham back east.

Peak attendance in the Tigers' single-tiered football arena was 30,832, who crammed into temporary bleachers and sat on the hillside to watch Faurot's team upset SMU, 20-14 in 1948.

A year later, the stadium underwent its first facelift with the addition of sections in the center of the west side, boosting the number of rows from 40 to 78. Those piece-meal additions continued sporadically until the summer of 1965, when the final two sections on the southeast corner were completed in the two-tired horseshoe.

The playing field adopted a new name in 1972 – Faurot Field—in honor of the legendary Mizzou football coach and athletic director whose teams and administrative leadership helped mightily to pay off the mortgage. As a matter of fact, Faurot a graduate student in 1926, helped lay the stadium's sod. He made one last symbolic contribution to the field, dropping in the last square of turf in June 1995, when Mizzou converted its previous artificial surface to natural grass. He died later than year, during Homecoming week.

The traditional block "M," carved from stone by the freshman class in 1927, guards the stadium's north endzone and gives Memorial Stadium one of the more unique landmarks around the country.

The "M," formed by whitewashed rocks, is 90-feet wide and 95-feet high. Mizzou's yearbook, the Savitar, recounted the debut of the Missouri landmark on Oct. 1, 1927, when the Tigers defeated Kansas State, 13-6:

"Five-hundred freshmen joined hands and encircled the cinder track in a single line while the bland played 'Old Missouri' in the center of the field. The pennants of all the Missouri Valley fluttered and danced above the stadium on the long line at the open end of the gridiron. A huge stone M – the work of the Frosh the night before – loomed up white and threatening against the bankment."

The "M" has weathered the good and bad times. In 1957, a group of pranksters changed the "M" to an "N" the night before the Missouri-Nebraska game. But, the Mizzou groundskeeper, with the help of some young boys who gained free admission to the game in exchange for their assistance, restored the "M" to his proper form before kickoff.

In 1995, Mizzou converted Faurot Field from an artificial surface known as OmniTurf (which graced the field from 1985-1994) to natural grass. The field was not the only cosmetic change made to Faurot Field in 1995. Grass-covered terraces now extend upwards from field level to the grandstands, where they meet a brick wall that adds a traditional collegiate ambiance to the stadium. The hill on the north end of the field was re-graded to provide a consistent "bowl" and is now framed by nearly 600 bushes.

Over the last 20 years, upgrades to the stadium's superstructure have been made, giving the natural bowl the tender loving care it needs to remain as the home of the Tigers for many years to come. In 1991, all of the stadium's old cypress bleachers were replaced with aluminum. Work in the stadium in 1995 also addressed accessibility issues. Seating sections and vomitories were modified to allow wheelchair access on both the east and west sides. Restrooms and concessions stands were replaced, as were the concourse surfaces beneath the grandstands in the next phase of the project, which was completed in 1997. The $12 million effort also included new ticket booths, a reconfigured north entrance, more brickwork to accent what was installed at field leve in 1995, and parking lot improvements. A portion of the project was completed in 1996, installing four light towers for night games. The Tigers gameday lockerroom, located underneath the south stands, was completed in 1992.

Tucked beneath the south stands is the facility which includes large and comfortable dressing quarters for players and coaches, state-of-the-art medical facilities including X-ray equipment, and a large interview room which enables 50 reporters to comfortably execute their post-game duties.

Prior to the 2006 season, scoreboards were installed above the south end zone stands, complete with messaging capability that keep fans updated on key game statistics and national scores.

Faurot Field had an artificial surface once before 1985 – for its very first game in 1926. Construction of the sunken stadium seating 25,000 spectators went down to the wire in the fall of '26 with the heaviest September rainfall in 35 years contributing to the delay.

Time ran out before the playing surface could be sodded for the Oct. 2 opener with Tulane. Constant rains washed out a bridge east of Columbia, and though repaired in time, slightly more than 10,000 drenched fans showed up for the opening ceremonies.

Without sod, sawdust and tanbark were spread on the field as an alternative, and the Tigers and the Green Wave played to a "scoreless, mudpie tie," bob Broeg wrote in his two historical books on Mizzou football.

NOTE – Capacity is listed as 71,004 due to seats available on north bowl and temporary bleacher seating.

Memorial Stadium/Faurot Field Timeline

- December, 1925 – Ground broken for future site of Memorial Stadium. It was carved out of a sizeable natural valley that lay between twin bluffs south of the campus.

- Oct. 2, 1926 – Stadium dedicated in memory of the 112 Missouri graduates and students who died in World War I. Mizzou and Tulane played to a scoreless tie on a field that was a muddy disaster due to torrential rains that drenched the Columbia area prior to the game. The field was built with a 440-yard track encircling it.

- Oct. 1, 1927 – The landmark rock 'M' debuts at Memorial Stadium after members of the freshman class construct it with leftover rocks from the stadium project. The monument stood 90 feet wide by 95 feet high and has watched over the field ever since that day, when Mizzou defeated Kansas State, 13-7. The Tigers were a perfect 4-0 at home during the 1927 season, which helped boost MU to its third Missouri Valley Conference championship since 1924 under Coach Gwinn Henry.

- Oct. 13, 1928 – Coach Gwinn Henry's Tigers open the 1928 season by pasting visiting Centre (Ky.) College, 60-0. It remains today as Mizzou's largest margin of victory at Memorial Stadium.

- Sept. 28, 1935 – Don Faurot makes his debut as Missouri Head Coach with a 39-0 whitewashing of William Jewell College. Faurot's first Tiger squad would go on to post a 3-3-3 record.

- Nov. 5, 1938 – Missouri blanks visiting Michigan State, 6-0. The win started a 20-game winning streak for the Tigers at Memorial Stadium, a record that still stands today. Mizzou would not lose at home again until a 20-13 loss to Oklahoma on Nov. 13, 1943.

- Nov. 4, 1939 – Unranked Missouri defeats 10th-ranked Nebraska, 27-13, at Memorial Stadium to mark MU's first-ever win over a ranked team. Two weeks later, the Tigers, now ranked 12th, upset 5th-ranked Oklahoma, 7-6, at Memorial Stadium, and went on to win the Big Six title – the first of three league championships to be won under Faurot from 1939-42.

- Oct. 9, 1948 – One of the biggest upsets in Memorial Stadium history occurs, as the unranked Tigers ambush 4th-ranked SMU, 20-14.

- Summer, 1949 – Stadium undergoes first expansion as 5,000 seats are added to the center section of west stands, increasing the number of rows from 40 to 78. Also built was a new press box that included seating for 50 writers and featured eight radio booths.

- Dec. 1, 1956 – Don Faurot is carried off the field on the shoulders of his players after his Tigers post a stirring last-minute 15-13 win over rival Kansas in Faurot's final game as a coach.

- Oct. 25, 1957 – A group of pranksters changed the rock "M" to an "N" the night before the Missouri-Nebraska game. But the Mizzou groundskeeper, with the help of some young boys who gained free admission to the game in exchange for their assistance, restored the "M" to its proper form before kickoff. The next day, Missouri used a last-minute touchdown to post a come-from-behind 14-13 win over the Huskers.

- Sept. 20, 1958 – Coach Dan Devine, the third Tiger coach in three years, makes his Missouri debut against Vanderbilt, but the visiting Commodores spoil the day by leaving Columbia with a 12-8 victory.

- Nov. 19, 1960 – One of the more infamous events in the history of Memorial Stadium took place, as the #1-ranked and undefeated Tigers were upset, 23-7, in the regular-season finale by unranked rival Kansas. The loss spoiled any national championship hopes for the Tigers, who would go on to beat Navy in the Orange Bowl and finish ranked as high as 4th in the UPI poll. It was later discovered that Kansas had used an ineligible player, and the game was officially forfeited by the Jayhawks, giving Mizzou a bittersweet administrative victory.

- Summer, 1965 – Final expansion of original horseshoe completed on southeast corner that added 3,595 seats bringing capacity at the time to 44,344 permanent seats.

- 1968 – New press box and VIP lounge constructed by private subscription.

- Nov. 21, 1970 – Dan Devine coaches his last game at Mizzou, and fittingly, goes out a winner against Kansas, 28-17.

- 1972 – Playing surface named Faurot Field in honor of legendary coach and athletic director Don Faurot.

- Oct. 28, 1972 – Coach Al Onofrio's unranked Tigers upset #7 Colorado, 20-17. Five more times over the next four years, Onofrio's squads would upset ranked teams on the newly christened Faurot Field.

- Oct. 13, 1973 – Mizzou got one of its biggest wins ever at Memorial Stadium/ Faurot Field when the 12th-ranked Tigers defeated #2 Nebraska, 13-12 when a last-minute Husker two-point conversion pass was intercepted by MU's Tony Gillick. Nebraska had beaten Mizzou by a combined score of 98-0 the two previous years. It remains as the highest-ranked foe any Tiger team has ever beaten.

- Summer, 1978 – South endzone was enclosed with 10,800 permanent seats.

- Oct. 4, 1980 – Largest crowd to ever see a game at Faurot Field witnesses a 29-21 upset win by 19th-ranked Penn State over 7th-ranked Mizzou. A record crowd of 75,298 saw the game.

- Oct. 15, 1983 – Musco Mobile Lighting brings in portable lights to illuminate a mid-afternoon game vs. Nebraska. Mizzou's defense holds Nebraska's "Scoring Explosion" offense somewhat in check, but still falls to the top-ranked Huskers, 34-13.

- Summer, 1984 – Glass-enclosed Tiger Lounge constructed in lower level of press box facility.

- May 18, 1985 – Project began to convert Faurot Field natural grass surface to new artificial surface called Omniturf. Project was completed on Aug. 30th.

- Sept. 14, 1985 – First game on Omniturf is an ominous 27-23 loss to Northwestern. Mizzou would finish the year 0-7 at home this season, with five of the games decided by a touchdown or less.

- Oct. 11, 1986 – Kicker Tom Whelihan kicks school-record 62-yard field goal in a 17-12 loss to Colorado.

- Oct. 6, 1990 – 12th-ranked Colorado escapes Faurot Field with a 33-31 win over Mizzou after benefiting from an officiating oversight that gave the Buffaloes five downs to score the winning TD on 5th-and-goal in the closing seconds. The "Fifth Down Game" helped propel the Buffaloes to a share of the national title that year.

- Summer, 1991 – All of the stadium's old cypress bleachers were replaced with aluminum.

- June 1, 1992 – Big Eight Conference coaches approve a statement that read, in part: "Big Eight Conference football coaches wanted to report that the football field at the University of Missouri is a detriment to the home and visiting teams and takes away from the integrity of the game played on such a field."

- Summer, 1992 – Facilities completed underneath south stands that give the Tigers a spacious game-day locker room, improved medical facilities including X-ray equipment, and a large interview room with enables 65 reporters to comfortably execute post-game duties.

Memorial Stadium/Faurot Field Timeline

- Oct. 8, 1992 – Musco brings in portable lights to illuminate the first-ever night game at Memorial Stadium/Faurot Field vs. Colorado. In brutally cold and wet weather, the 9th-ranked Buffaloes escape with a 6-0 win.

- Nov. 11, 1992 – Coach Bob Stull's Tigers close the 1992 season out with a 22-17 upset win over 22nd-ranked Kansas. Kicker Jeff Jacke set an MU single-game record by making five field goals in the game.

- Sept. 18, 1994 – Rock and Roll legends The Rolling Stones, perform an open-air concert at Memorial Stadium before 45,000 fans. The concert helped provide nearly $100,000 toward the eventual project that converted the Omniturf surface to natural grass the next year.

- Nov. 19, 1994 – Mizzou loses its home finale to Kansas, 31-14. The game would mark the last played on the now infamous Omniturf surface. In its 10 seasons on the surface, Mizzou's record was just 20-38-3.

- June, 1995 – Project begins to convert Faurot Field from Omniturf back to natural grass. The grass, a blend of five Kentucky bluegrass varieties, was donated for the project by Gene Sandner and Darrell Seltsam of S&S Seed Farms/Evergreen Sod in Rocheport, Mo. Legendary Coach Don Faurot, who helped lay sod for the original field in 1926 at Memorial Stadium, put down the last piece of sod to finalize the newest version as a symbolic gesture. Faurot later died in October of that year, during Homecoming Week.

- June, 1995 – Grass-covered terraces were extended upward from field level to the grandstands, where they met a new brick wall, to give the stadium a traditional collegiate ambiance. The red brick eventually became a central unifying theme throughout the Sports Park at MU the evolved in the years to follow.

- Sept. 2, 1995 – Mizzou defeats North Texas, 28-7, on first game back on natural grass at Memorial Stadium.

- Summer, 1996 – Four light towers were permanently installed, giving Missouri the opportunity to play night games on a regular basis.

- Sept. 14, 1996 – First-ever night game at Faurot Field with permanent light system goes awry, as Memphis leaves with a 19-16 upset win over the Tigers.

- Oct. 26, 1996 – The first overtime game in Mizzou history results in a 35-28 Tiger Homecoming win over Oklahoma State.

- Summer, 1997 — $12 million renovation of Faurot Field was completed that replaced restrooms, concession stands and concourse surfaces beneath the grandstands. The effort also included new ticket booths, a reconfigured north entrance, more brickwork to accent what was installed at field level in 1995, and parking lot improvements. Diamond Vision video replay scoreboard is installed as part of this project above the rock 'M', with a screen measuring 21-feet tall by 27-feet wide.

- Nov. 8, 1997 – Top-ranked Nebraska escaped Faurot Field with a 45-38 overtime win after a miracle TD on a 4th down in the closing seconds of regulation forced the extra period. The win helped propel Nebraska to a share of the national championship that year. The Huskers' miracle TD took place in the same North end zone where Colorado scored to win seven years earlier in the "5th-Down Game," prompting MU fans to believe there is a curse of sorts in the North end zone.

- Sept. 12, 1998 – Senior tailback Devin West rushes for a school-record 319 yards on 33 carries in leading the 25th-ranked Tigers to a 41-23 win over rival Kansas.

- April, 2003 – Faurot Field sod torn up to make way for switch to artificial surface and salvageable amounts given free to Tiger fans.

- June 25, 2003 – FieldTurf installation project is completed.

- Sept. 13, 2003 – The first game ever on FieldTurf is a success, as Mizzou crushes Eastern Illinois, 37-0, giving the Tigers their first shutout win since 1998.

- Oct. 11, 2003 – Mizzou, stinging from its previous game, an unexpected 35-14 loss at Kansas, rebounds to earn one of the biggest wins in recent memory, as the Tigers upset 10th-ranked Nebraska, 41-24 on a wet night that was televised nationally by TBS. The win, which came before a sellout crowd of 68,349, broke a 25-game Husker winning streak over MU, and it marked Mizzou's first win in Columbia over Nebraska since 1973.

- Oct. 25, 2003 – Mizzou becomes bowl eligible by getting its sixth win of the season in fine fashion, as they outdistanced Texas Tech and their Heisman Trophy candidate quarterback B.J. Symons, 62-31. Mizzou's QB extraordinaire Brad Smith broke a school record by scoring five touchdowns, as he rushed for 291 yards.

- Nov. 29, 2003 – On the Saturday of Thanksgiving week, Mizzou closed out a perfect 6-0 home record with a 45-7 win over Iowa State to earn its eighth win of the year. Senior tailback Zack Abron became MU's all-time rushing leader on a first quarter run.

- Sept. 10, 2005 – In a 45-35 loss to New Mexico, senior quarterback Brad Smith became Mizzou's career rushing AND passing leader on consecutive drives in the 3rd quarter of the game.

- Nov. 12, 2005 – Record-setting quarterback Brad Smith closed out his Faurot Field career by leading Mizzou to a hardfought 31-16 win over Baylor. Smith, who would end his career holding as many as 69 different MU, Big 12 and NCAA game, season and career records, closed his brilliant home career by rushing for 161 yards and 3 TDs.

- Sept. 2, 2006 – Sophomore QB Chase Daniel makes his first career start, and promptly breaks the MU single-game passing touchdown record by throwing five scoring strikes in the 2006 season opener against Murray State.

- Oct. 6, 2007 – The 17th-ranked Tigers blitzed 25th-ranked Nebraska, 41-6 before a modern-day record crowd of 70,049. The win was MU's most lopsided over Nebraska since 1947, and Chase Daniel's 473 all-purpose yards was only 7 shy of the MU record of 480 set by Brad Smith in 2005, also against Nebraska.

- Spring, 2009 – Work began on a new video board display to replace the aging board located on the top of the grass hill beyond the north endzone. The project was completed prior to MU's 2009 home opener on Sept. 12 against Bowling Green.

- Oct. 23, 2010 – Mizzou earned its first-ever win over a #1-ranked opponent as the Tigers posted a scintillating 36-27 comeback win over Oklahoma for Homecoming. The win was seen nationally on ABC and was also supplemented by the first-ever Columbia appearance by the ESPN College GameDay set.

Faurot Field/Memorial Stadium Trivia

- Legend has it that during initial blasting done for the building of the stadium, a rock crusher and truck were buried, and still today, they reside buried under the field.

- Original plans called for the stadium to seat 25,000, with proposed stages of expansion to 35,000, 55,000, 75,000 and 98,875.

- In 1974, Athletic Director Mel Sheehan studied the possibility of lowering the field and adding seats on each side closer to the sidelines, but the plans were scratched due to a prevalence of bedrock just below the surface.

Six Straight Bowl Games – A Mizzou Record

#23 JOHNNY ROLAND

Johnny Roland undoubtedly was the biggest recruiting catch by Dan Devine during his 13 years as football coach at the University of Missouri.

Roland, of Corpus Christi, Texas, was Ol' Mizzou's leading rusher and scorer as a sophomore in 1962 with 830 yards and 78 points, respectively. However, he specialized primarily as a defensive back in his junior and senior seasons.

Capping MU's 1965 Sugar Bowl season, Roland was a consensus first-team all-American on defense. Yet, Devine utilized the 6-2, 207-pound athlete's talents to the fullest — often inserting Roland as a ball-carrier and a blocking back whenever the Tigers penetrated their opponent's 20-yard line. He also returned punts.

Roland shared the captaincy of the '65 team and became Mizzou's first back to win all-America laurels in 23 years. He went on to win NFL Rookie-of-the-Year with the St. Louis Cardinals, and went on to a long career as a backfield coach in the NFL. He was inducted into the National Football Foundation College Football Hall of Fame in 1998.

#23 ROGER WEHRLI

When it came to game-winning plays, MU's Roger Wehrli had few peers. Although stationed in the defensive backfield, the Tigers' highly-regarded Wehrli played major offensive roles in many MU victories during his career.

Iowa State could testify to that. In 1966, Wehrli started the Tigers' 23-7 victory by returning the game-opening kickoff 96 yards for a TD. In the Tigers' 42-7 Homecoming win over ISU in '68, Wehrli put on a magnificent show by returning six punts for 149 yards — one a 54-yarder. The King City native set up four of the Tigers' six TDs. A week before, the 6-0, 184-pounder set a MU record by intercepting three Oklahoma State passes.

A consensus all-American in 1968, and the nation's leading punt returner, Wehrli broke school and Big Eight punt return records during his career. He went on to a standout career with the St. Louis Cardinals and was a perennial all-Pro selection. Wehrli was enshrined into the National Football Foundation College Football Hall of Fame in 2004, and later was also enshrined in the Pro Football Hall of Fame in 2006.

#27 BROCK OLIVO

Brock Olivo came to Mizzou with modest fanfare, but thanks to his legendary work ethic, he became one of the great inspirational players in school history.

A native of Washington, Mo., Olivo helped restore pride to his home state program that had fallen on hard times when he led the Tigers to the 1997 Holiday Bowl – MU's first bowl appearance since 1983.

Olivo made his mark at tailback and on special teams during a career that spanned from 1994-97. He left as the school's all-time leading career rusher, with 3,026 yards, and his 188 points ranked him fourth on the career scoring list. Olivo became the first Tiger to rush for 200 yards in a game twice, doing so during his sophomore season with a 222-yard outing against Northeast Louisiana and following with a 201-yard day against Iowa State later in the year.

The Big Eight Conference Offensive Freshman of the Year in 1994, Olivo went on to ensure his spot in Tiger Football history when he won the Mosi Tatupu National Special Teams Player of the Year Award in 1997 – making him the first Tiger to ever win a national individual award.

#37 BOB STEUBER

More than 50 years after hanging up his competitive cleats at Missouri, Bob Steuber still ranks as the Tigers' ninth-best ground-gainer of all time.

Steuber was the big, fast back — a 210-pounder who could turn the 100 in 10-flat — who made Don Faurot's new-fangled Split-T formation such a rousing success in 1941 and '42. Switched from end to halfback as a junior and finished as the nation's number-three rusher in 1941, and the rushing runner-up in 1942. His career total was 2,030 yards, which stood as the Mizzou record for 28 years, until surpassed by Joe Moore in 1970.

He still holds Missouri records for highest average per carry in a game (15.8) and highest average per carry in a season (7.6). His record of most career points (222) stood until 1992.

All-America in 1942, Steuber was drafted by the Chicago Bears, but entered the service, and later played professionally with the Cleveland Browns, L.A. Dons and Buffalo Bills.

#42 DAROLD JENKINS

A center-linebacker for Don Faurot's 1940 and '41 Tiger teams, Darold Jenkins was inducted into the National Football Foundation Hall of Fame in 1976. He captained the '41 Tiger club that was considered to be the best of Faurot's 19 Missouri teams, and went to the Sugar Bowl.

A native of Higginsville, Mo., Jenkins was named to 17 all-America teams in 1941. He later was a bomber pilot in World War II, and on his 27th mission was shot down. He spent 17 months in a German POW camp.

After discharge from the service, he served as trial counsel for the State Highway Commission. He died in 1986.

#44 PAUL CHRISTMAN

"Pitchin" Paul Christman set virtually all of the passing records at Mizzou, most of which stood intact for nearly 40 years.

Christman won all-America honors in 1939 and '40 and was MU's first player to be inducted into the National Football Foundation Hall of Fame. He is the only Mizzou player (until 2007) to finish among the top-five in Heisman Trophy voting, as he finished third in 1939 and fifth in 1940.

Following his career, during which he led the Tigers to their first conference championship and bowl appearance under Don Faurot, Christman served in the U.S. Navy from 1941-45.

He played four years of pro football with the Chicago Cardinals ('46-49) and finished with the Green Bay Packers in 1950. He was an accomplished network television analyst and commentator, teaming with Curt Gowdy on early AFL telecasts. A native of St. Louis, he died suddenly at the age of 51, in 1970.

#83 KELLEN WINSLOW

An All-American on and off the field, Kellen Winslow may be the greatest tight end ever to play the game. At MU, he was a two-time all-league choice and a consensus all-American as a senior. But the 28 passes he caught for 479 yards and six TDs in 1978 were just the tip of the iceberg.

During a nine-year career with San Diego, Winslow starred with Dan Fouts and Charlie Joiner in the most prolific passing attack ever unleashed on NFL gridirons. He caught 541 passes for 6,741 yards and scored 45 TDs.

He's best remembered for a '81 playoff game against the Miami Dolphins, when he caught 13 passes and blocked a FG with :04 remaining to send the game into OT. San Diego went on to win, 41-38.

Winslow was inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame in Canton, Ohio, in 1995, and was a 2003 inductee into the National Football Foundation College Football Hall of Fame, and was honored in 2004 as an NCAA Silver Anniversary Award Winner. An attorney, Winslow previously worked as part of the Mizzou Radio team, and is now the athletic director at Central State University in Wilberforce, Ohio.

Missouri has had 31 first-team all-Americans, 11 of whom have been consensus choices— center Darold Jenkins ('41), end Danny LaRose ('60), defensive back Johnny Roland ('65), defensive back Roger Wehrli ('68), tight end Kellen Winslow ('78), offensive tackle John Clay ('86), center Rob Riti ('99), tight end Martin Rucker (2007), all-purpose man Jeremy Maclin (2007 and 2008), tight end Chase Coffman (2008) and tight end Michael Egnew (2010).

1925 Ed Lindenmeyer, T

Mizzou's very first All-American, as he won the designation for the 1925 season. A native of Lake Forest, Ill., Lindenmeyer came to Mizzou and starred at both tackle and end, lettering in 1924-25-26. He earned All-Missouri Valley Conference honors in 1925, and blocked a punt for a safety in a 9-6 upset win over Nebraska that season. Lindenmeyer lettered on Gwinn Henry's teams that had a stellar three-year record of 18-4-3. He later went on to coach at Lake Forest (Ill.) College.

1939 Paul Christman, QB

The legendary "Pitchin Paul" Christman came to Mizzou from Maplewood, Mo., and lettered in football in 1938-39-40, and in baseball in 1938-39-41. He was a three-time All-Big Six Conference quarterback, and twice won All-America honors. Christman finished third in the Heisman Trophy voting in 1939, and fifth in 1940. He went on to play in the National Football League with the Chicago Cardinals (1945-49) and Green Bay Packers (1950), and led the Cardinals to division titles in 1947-48 and the league championship in 1947. He still ranks seventh in MU history with 3,882 yards of total offense, and ninth with 2,895 passing yards. In 1940, he led the nation with 1,131 yards passing and 13 TD passes. During his career, MU had a 20-8 record, with a Big Six title in '39, and its first bonafide bowl game – the 1940 Orange Bowl. The first Tiger player to be inducted into the National Football Foundation Hall of Fame (in 1956), his jersey (44) number is retired.

1941 Darold Jenkins, C

A faultless ball-handler, Missouri's Darold Jenkins was a mid- line magician during the early 1940s. He played the unheralded role of center, making coach Don Faurot's split-T formation click through a 22-7 record. On defense he played middle linebacker. In 1941, Jenkins captained the Tigers and led them to one of their most exciting seasons. They lost to Ohio State, 12-7, in the season opener, then ran off eight victories before bowing to Fordham, 2-0, in the Sugar Bowl. Missouri won the Big Six Championship that year and Jenkins was named All-Conference and All-America. Jenkins was the leading center of his day and Faurot considered him a "play- maker" because of his ability to get the offense moving. After college, Jenkins served six years in the U.S. Army Air Corps logging 27 combat missions over Germany. He spent 16 months as a prisoner of war. When he retired from the military, Jenkins held the rank of lieutenant colonel. He returned to study law and, in 1952, became a practicing attorney, eventually joining the Missouri State Highway Commission. He died September 16, 1986.

1942 Bob Steuber, HB

A star halfback out of CBC High School in St. Louis, Mo., Steuber lettered at MU in 1940-41-42. He was a two-time All-Big Six selection, who won All-America honors in 1942, and is one of seven Tigers to have his jersey (37) retired. He still holds the MU single-season scoring record (121 points in 1942) and ranks fourth in career scoring and 10th in rushing yards in school history. His 2,030 rushing yards stood as the MU record for 28 years. He posted MU's first 1,000-yard rushing campaign in 1942, ranking second in the nation with 1,098 yards. When MU led the nation in rushing in 1941, he was third in the nation with 855 yards. Steuber played in the East-West Shrine and College All-Star Games following graduation, then played professionally with the Chicago Bears, Cleveland Browns, Los Angeles Dons and Buffalo Bills. He was inducted into the National Football Foundation Hall of Fame in 1971.

1955 Harold Burnine, E

An All-America receiver for Coach Don Faurot in 1955, when he led the nation in receiving with 44 receptions for 594 yards. He led the conference in receiving in 1954, as well. The native of Richmond, Mo., was also All-Big Seven that year, and played in four all-star games – the Blue-Gray, North-South, Senior Bowl and College All-Star game. For his three-year MU career, Burnine caught 75 passes for 1,145 yards, figures that kept him in the Tiger top-10 until the l990s. He played professionally with the New York Giants and Philadelphia Eagles. Burnine was inducted into the MU Intercollegiate Athletics Hall of Fame in 1993.

1960 Danny LaRose, E

One of the greatest two-way talents in Missouri history, LaRose starred from 1958-60, as an end who could dominate the line of scrimmage, and was also MU's leading receiver as a sophomore and senior. He also punted for MU in 1960. A native of Crystal City, Mo., LaRose won all-conference honors in 1958 and '60, and was a consensus All-America selection in 1960 (making 13 teams), when Missouri beat Navy and Heisman Trophy winner Joe Bellino in the Orange Bowl. LaRose played in the College All-Star Game and Hula Bowl in 1961, then went on to a professional career with the Detroit Lions, Pittsburgh Steelers and Miami Dolphins. He was also an accomplished Weightman in track, who held Missouri's indoor shot put record for many years.

1961 Ed Blaine, T

One of the greatest offensive linemen in Missouri history, Blaine lettered as a Tiger in 1959-60-61. He received All-Big Eight and All-America honors in 1961, and was an honorable mention selection on the Missouri All-Century Team. A native of Farmington, Mo., Blaine played in the East-West Shrine Game, the Senior Bowl and the College All-Star Game, after his senior season, on the way to a career in the NFL with the Green Bay Packers (1962-63) and Philadelphia Eagles (1963-66). In his post-playing days, Blaine established himself as one of the nation's foremost pharmaceutical researchers, and has spoken at Mizzou's commencement exercises.

1962 Conrad Hitchler, E

A standout two-way end for Coach Dan Devine, who lettered at Mizzou from 1960-62. Hitchler led Mizzou in receiving in 1961, and was an All-Big Eight selection in both 1961 and '62. He earned All-America status as a senior, then went on to play in the East-West Shrine Game, the Hula Bowl and the Coaches All-America Game. He played three years in the Canadian Football League as a member of the Calgary Stampeders. His son, Conrad Goode, was also an All-American offensive tackle for the Tigers in 1983.

1965 Johnny Roland, DB

Johnny Roland's career at Missouri had two dimensions. As a sophomore in 1962 he was a running back. He rushed for 830 yards, seventh best total in the nation, and scored 78 points, ninth in the nation. He rushed for 155 yards against Oklahoma State, 104 against Iowa State. When he returned for his junior year in 1964, Coach Dan Devine moved him to defensive back. He made All-America at this position in 1965. Roland stood 6-2, weighed 198, and was a power runner. Even in the years he was a defensive back, Devine occasionally moved him into the game on offense. He always picked times when Missouri had the ball inside the opponent's 20-yard line. In 1965 Roland also returned 42 punts and kickoffs for 690 yards, averaging 16.4 yards on each. He was Missouri's co-captain in 1965, and helped the team to an 8-2-1 record, including a 20-18 victory over Florida in the 1966 Sugar Bowl. Missouri retired his jersey, No. 23, and he was inducted into the National Football Foundation Hall of Fame in 1998. He made All-Big Eight as a runner in 1962 and as a defensive back in 1964 and 1965. In 1965 he had six pass interceptions. He had an 8-year playing career in the pros with St. Louis and the New York Giants, winning NFL Rookie-of-the-Year honors with the Cardinals. He has gone on to a long career as a backfield coach in the NFL, and is currently with the Arizona Cardinals.

1965 Francis Peay, OT

A Pittsburgh, Pa., native, Peay was a standout tackle at Mizzou in 1964-65, and won All-Big Eight and All-America honors as a senior when Missouri ranked third in the nation in rushing offense and won the Sugar Bowl over Florida and Heisman Trophy winner Steve Spurrier. He was the Big Eight's lineman of the week following MU's 17-6 win over Minnesota that season, and later played in the Senior Bowl, Coaches All-American Game and College All-Star Game. He was a first-round choice of the New York Giants in the 1966 NFL Draft, and later played with the Green Bay Packers (1968-72) and Kansas City Chiefs (1973-75). Named to the Missouri All-Century Team, he was inducted into the MU Intercollegiate Athletics Hall of Fame in 1991.

1967 Russ Washington, OT

One of the most dominant linemen in MU history, Russ Washington was the Big Eight Conference Defensive Player of the Year and a first-team All-American in 1967. He was twice named All-Big Eight and played in four all-star games following his senior season. Washington starred in the NFL for the San Diego Chargers from 1968-83, and had two brothers, Wayne and David, who later played on the offensive line for Mizzou.

1968 Roger Wehrli, DB

When it came to game-winning plays, MU's Roger Wehrli had few peers. Although stationed in the defensive backfield, the Tigers' highly-regarded Wehrli played major offensive roles in many MU victories during his career. Iowa State could testify to that. In 1966, Wehrli started the Tigers' 23-7 victory by returning the game-opening kickoff 96 yards for a TD. In the Tigers' 42-7 Homecoming win over ISU in '68, Wehrli put on a magnificent show by returning six punts for 149 yards — one a 54-yarder. The King City native set up four of the Tigers' six TDs. A week before, the 6-0, 184-pounder set a MU record by intercepting three Oklahoma State passes. A consensus all-American in 1968, and the nation's leading punt returner, Wehrli broke school and Big Eight punt return records during his career. He went on to a standout career with the St. Louis Cardinals and was a perennial all-Pro selection. Wehrli will be enshrined into the National Football Foundation College Football Hall of Fame in 2004.

1969 Mike Carroll, OG

A powerful blocker who was selected a first-team All-American offensive lineman as a senior after helping lead Missouri to the 1970 Orange Bowl. That Tiger squad featured on of the nation's most high-powered offensive attacks, and the team finished the 1969 season as the Big Eight Conference Co-Champions with a 9-2 record and No. 6 national ranking. The 1969 team set school records at the time for points per game (36.2), total yards (4,507), passing yards (2,048) and touchdown passes (20). Carroll helped pave the way for running back Joe Moore to gain 1,312 yards rushing (3rd in the nation) and for quarterback Terry McMillan to rank 12th nationally in 1969 with 2,157 total yards. The Ste. Genevieve, Mo., native, played in the prestigious Senior Bowl following his senior season.

1973 Scott Anderson, C

A standout center on Missouri teams that played in the 1972 Fiesta and 1973 Sun Bowls, Anderson lettered for Coach Al Onofrio from 1971-73. An All-Big Eight and All-America selection as a senior in 1973, Anderson played in the Hula Bowl and Coaches All-American all-star games in 1974. He recovered a fumble that set up a touchdown that led to MU's 13-12 victory over Nebraska in Columbia in 1973. He went on to play in the National Football League with the Minnesota Vikings from 1974-77.

1973 John Moseley, DB

One of the most exciting players ever to play at MU, Moseley holds the distinction of being the only MU football player ever to go from walk-on to All-American. A defensive back from 1971-73, Moseley was a daring kick return man. He ranked sixth in the nation in punt returns in 1973, with an average of 16.5 yards per return. For his career, he averaged 13.3 yards, which stood as the school record until recently. The Columbia, Mo., native was named All-American as a senior in 1973.

1975 Henry Marshall, WR

One of Mizzou's greatest receivers, Henry Marshall was an All-Big Eight and All-America choice in 1975, when he caught 44 passes for 945 yards and nine touchdowns. A native of Salina, Kan., he was a tight end when he lettered as a freshman in 1972, but moved to wideout while lettering in 1974 and '75. He played in the Blue-Gray Game, Hula Bowl and Coaches All-American Game following his senior year, then was drafted by the Kansas City Chiefs, for whom he played from 1976-87, and in the process, unseated Otis Taylor as Kansas City's alltime leading receiver. He held the MU records for receiving yards in a game (207) and season (945) for 15 years, before both were eventually broken. A first-team choice on the Missouri All-Century Team, Marshall was inducted into the MU Intercollegiate Athletics Hall of Fame in 1991.

1976 Morris Towns, OT

Earned first-team All-American honors as a senior tackle in 1976, a year that saw Mizzou pull huge upset wins on the road against four top-15 teams: No. 2 Ohio State, No. 3 Nebraska, No. 8 USC and No. 14 Colorado. Was known as being equally adept at providing crushing run blocks as he was providing excellent pass protection. A St. Louis, Mo., native who was a three-year starter for the Tigers. He won first-team All-Big Eight honors as a senior, and went on to play in prestigious college all-star games such as the Blue-Gray Game, the Hula Bowl, and the Japan Bowl. He went on to become the 11th overall pick of the 1977 NFL Draft, to the Houston Oilers, and enjoyed a fine nine-year professional career, playing with the Oilers for six years, and the Washington Redskins for three more.

1978 Kellen Winslow, TE

A native of East St. Louis, Ill., Kellen Winslow redefined the tight end position at the collegiate and professional levels during his playing career. Before Winslow, most tight ends ran short- to medium-length pass patterns. Kellen was one of the first tight ends to run deeper routes due to his unique combination of size and speed. As a freshman, he only played in three games and caught one pass. The next year new coach Warren Powers installed an expanded passing offense in which Winslow and the Tigers flourished. That year Mizzou upset Notre Dame and Nebraska, two teams which were rated among the nation's top five teams, while Winslow's number of catches improved to 16. In his junior year, he won the first of back-to-back All-Conference selections. As a senior, he added Consensus All-America honors to his list of accomplishments. Winslow went on to have a Pro Football Hall of Fame career in nine seasons with the San Diego Chargers, where he caught 541 passes for 6.741 yards and nine touchdowns. He was inducted into the National Football Foundation Hall of Fame in 2003.

1980 Bill Whitaker, DB

A ballhawking defensive back who had a nose for big plays in the secondary. Earned first-team All-American honors as a senior in 1980 after leading the Big Eight Conference with six interceptions, including three in a single game against San Diego State. Oddly enough, he also had three pass interceptions as a junior in a game versus San Diego State. His 14 career interceptions tied him for the MU career record at the time of his graduation, and still ranks second on the school charts. Also served double duty as a punt returner, and was MU's top return man in 1980, as the Tigers went 8-4 and played in the Liberty Bowl. Went on to become a seventh-round draft pick by the Green Bay Packers in the 1981 NFL Draft, and played six years in the league, three each with the Packers and the St. Louis Cardinals.

1981 Brad Edelman, C

A native of St. Louis, Mo., Brad Edelman lettered as a standout center at Mizzou from 1978-81, and played on MU teams that appeared in four bowl games (1978 Liberty, 1979 Hall of Fame, 1980 Liberty and 1981 Tangerine). He earned All-American status in as a senior co-captain in 1981, in addition to earning All-Big Eight honors as a junior in 1980. A member of the Missouri All-Century Team, Edelman played in the Hula Bowl and Olympia Gold Bowl all-star games following the 1981 season. He went on to a solid professional football career, playing in the National Football League with the New Orleans Saints from 1982-90 as an offensive guard. He was a Pro-Bowl starter in 1987, and was a Pro-Bowl alternate in 1982-83-84-88. Edelman worked as an actor in Hollywood for a period of time after finishing his pro football career.

1981 Jeff Gaylord, DT

A rugged defender who hailed from Overland Park, Kan., and lettered three years for Mizzou (1978-80-81), playing on MU teams that went to bowl games each year (1978 Liberty, 1980 Liberty and 1981 Tangerine). Won Big Eight Conference Defensive Player of the Year honors as a senior in 1981, making him to this day the only Tiger to win a conference defensive player of the year award. Was named All-Big Eight in 1981, and earned player of the game honors in MU's 1981 Tangerine Bowl victory over Southern Mississippi. Following his senior season, Gaylord played in the Blue-Gray Game, East-West Shrine Game and the Senior Bowl. He played professional football with the Los Angeles Rams, Toronto Argonauts and in the USFL, from 1982-85. He also was a professional wrestler for several years following his retirement from football.

1983 Conrad Goode, OT

An offensive tackle with good Tiger bloodlines, whose father, Conrad Hitchler, was an All-American end at MU in 1962. A native of St. Louis, Mo., Goode lettered at MU from 1980-83 and played on Missouri teams that appeared in three bowl games (1980 Liberty, 1981 Tangerine, 1983 Holiday). As a senior co-captain, earned All-American honors, in addition to being named All-Big Eight Conference. He played in the prestigious East-West Shrine all-star game following his senior season, and went on to play in the National Football League with the New York Giants (1984-85) and Tampa Bay Buccaneers (1987-89). Following his football playing days, became a successful actor in Hollywood, where he still works today.

1986 John Clay, OT

An earth-moving offensive tackle, John Clay was a St. Louis, Mo. native who earned consensus All-American honors as a senior in 1986. He lettered four years for Mizzou, from 1983-86, and was a first-team All-Big Eight selection in 1984-85-86, joining former standouts Johnny Roland, Gary Lane and Phil Bradley as MU's only three-time all-league honorees in the Big Eight era. A team co-captain in 1986, Clay ended his collegiate career by playing in the prestigious Blue-Gray Game and East-West Shrine Game. He went on to become a first-round draft pick by the Los Angeles Raiders of the National Football League in 1987. He was later traded to the San Diego Chargers in 1988, but a back injury prematurely ended his promising career.

1998 Devin West, TB

He might have come to Mizzou from nearby Moberly, Mo., without much fanfare, but Devin West became one of the top running backs in school history before his playing days were done. Lettering for four years (1995-98), West ended his career as MU's No. 2 alltime career rusher, with 2,954 yards, and now stands number three. He would rank as MU's alltime leader if bowl games were counted in career totals during his day. Still holds MU record for all-purpose yardage in a career (3,824), season (1,621 in 1998) and game (333 vs. Kansas in 1998). Was a first-team All-American running back (MU's first since Bob Steuber in 1942) as a senior in 1998, who helped lead Mizzou to an 8-4 season and a win over West Virginia in the Insight.com Bowl – MU's first bowl win since 1981. He rushed for 125 yards in the game. Rushed for an MU single-season record 1,578 yards in 1998, which ranked him fifth in the nation. Included in that total was a dominant 319-yard, two-touchdown rushing day against arch rival Kansas for Homecoming in 1998. Played in the Senior Bowl following the 1998 season, and was a semi-finalist for the prestigious Doak Walker Award, which is presented annually to the nation's top running back.

1999 Rob Riti, C

One of the best centers to ever play the game for Mizzou, Riti won first-team All-America honors as a senior in 1999, and became one of only seven Tigers to earn consensus All-American first-team honors. He was a key figure in MU rushing attacks that ranked among the nation's top-10 statistically three times. Started an MU-record 44 consecutive games from 1996-99, and helped pave the way for tailback Devin West to an All-American year in 1998 as the Tigers won their first bowl game since 1981, with a victory over West Virginia in the Insight.com Bowl. Was one of the strongest Tigers to ever don the Black and Gold, as he was the first MU player to record a 900-lb. squat lift in 1998, then topped that with a school-record 1,000-lb. lift in 1999.

2000 Justin Smith, DE

A first-team All-American as a junior who was virtually unstoppable, despite constant double and even triple-teaming efforts by Tiger opponents. A fierce competitor with a tireless motor who left holding the MU career quarterback sack record, with 22.5 in just three years. Broke the MU single-season sack record in his junior year, recording 11 on his own. A native of Holts Summit, Mo., Smith declared for the NFL Draft after his stellar junior season, and became the fourth overall pick of the 2001 NFL Draft, by the Cincinnati Bengals, who he led in sacks each of his first two seasons in the league. Made an instant impression, as he became the first true freshman to start every game since 1986, when he started all 12 contests in 1998. Was a key factor for MU's defense that year that saw the Tigers earn their first bowl win since 1981, as they defeated West Virginia in the Insight.com Bowl.

2007 Martin Rucker, TE

The top pass-catching tight end in Mizzou hsitory, Rucker won consensus 1st-Team All-American honors as a senior in 2007 when he caught 84 passes for 834 yards and eight touchdowns in helping lead Mizzou to a 12-2 season and its first-ever Big 12 North Division title and a final No. 4 Associated Press ranking. Rucker was a vital part of the rebuilding of the Tiger program, and served as a leader and visual aid of the hard work and dedication to the program that needed to take shape to get the program back in the national scene. Rucker ended his Tiger career with an MU-record 203 receptions, 2,175 yards and 18 TDs, as he started in an MU-record 50 consecutive games from 2004-07. His 84 catches in 2007 broke the MU single-season record, as well.

2007, 2008 Jeremy Maclin, All-Purpose

After missing the 2006 season due to a knee injury, redshirt freshman Jeremy Maclin burst onto the scene in record-setting fashion, and became MU's first-ever freshman to earn 1st-Team All-American honors in 2007. He earned consensus 1st-Team status by breaking the NCAA single-season freshman record for all-purpose yards, as he amassed a whopping 2,776 yards – including 1,055 receiving, 1,039 kickoff return, 375 rushing and 307 punt return. Maclin scored 16 touchdowns in all to become one of the most dynamic players in all of college football, with nine scores coming on receptions, four on the ground, two in punt returns and one on a kickoff return – the latter was an historic 99-yard kickoff return for score at Kansas State that was MU's first since 1982. He was the only player in Division I in 2007 to score touchdowns in all four all-purpose categories. He repeated with consensus 1st-Team All-American honors in 2008 as he led the NCAA in all-purpose yardage (202.36 ypg) and broke MU single-season receiving records with 102 receptions, 1,260 yards and 13 TDs. In just two years, he broke the MU record for career all-purpose yardage, with 5,609 yards. He closed his career with Offensive MVP honors in the 2008 Alamo Bowl, as he returned a punt for TD and caught the game-winning TD pass from Chase Daniel in MU's 30-23 overtime win. Maclin chose to bypass his final two years of collegiate eligibility and entered the 2009 NFL Draft, where he was taken with the #19 overall selection in the first round by the Philadelphia Eagles.

2008 Chase Coffman, TE

Despite missing two games late in the year with a foot injury, Coffman established himself as the top tight end in all of college football, and won consensus 1st-Team All-American honors, marking the second straight year MU tight ends earned that distinction. Coffman surpassed former teammate Martin Rucker as MU's top pass-catching tight end of all time, as he had 90 receptions in 2008 for 987 yards and 10 touchdowns. His play in 2008 not only earned him All-American honors, but won him the John Mackey Award, which goes annually to the top tight end in the nation. That made Coffman the first Tiger in history to win a national individual award given to a specific position group. Coffman ended his career holding Mizzou records for receptions (247) and touchdowns (30), and was second alltime in receiving yards (2,659). He went on to become a third-round draft pick of the Cincinnati Bengals in the 2009 NFL Draft.

2009 Danario Alexander, WR

Overcoming huge odds, Danario Alexander turned in a record-smashing senior season in 2009 to become the nation's leading receiver, and took home All-American honors in the process. Coming into his senior year, Alexander hadn't even earned honorable-mention All-Big 12 status, thanks mostly to the fact that his first three years were impacted by a string of unfortunate knee injuries. He was resolute in his determination to prove he belonged among the nation's elite receivers, and he did just that in 2009, as he burst onto the scene with an NCAA-best 137.0 yards per game average, which included an MU-record 1,781 yards, 14 touchdowns and 113 receptions. His yardage total was some 500 yards more than the previous record of 1,260 established in 2008 by Jeremy Maclin (in one fewer game, nonetheless), and it propelled Alexander to the top of the Mizzou career receiving yardage charts, with 2,778 (previous record was 2,704 by Justin Gage). He became only the fifth Tiger in history to lead the NCAA in an individual statistical category, and the first receiver since Hank Burnine led the country in 1955 with 44 receptions. Alexander had an MU-record nine 100-yard receiving games, including six straight to close the season. Included in that string were three 200-yard performances in a four-game stretch (214 vs. Baylor, 200 at Kansas State, 173 vs. Iowa State and 233 vs. Kansas). For his career, Alexander finished with 191 receptions for 2,778 yards and 22 touchdowns.

2009 Grant Ressel, PK

One of the more amazing stories to come out of college football during the 2009 season had to do with the previously unheralded sophomore walk-on kicker Grant Ressel, who rose from unknown status to become one of the nation's top kickers. Ressel began fall camp second on the depth chart as the Tigers looked to replace Jeff Wolfert, who left after the 2008 holding the NCAA career record for combined kick accuracy. With those rather large shoes to fill, Ressel was named the starting kicker the week of the 2009 season opener, and proceeded to put together an amazing season which earned him All-American status. All he did was set an NCAA single-season combined kick accuracy record, as he connected on a combined 98.5% (65-of-66) of his kicks, including 26-of-27 field goals and 39-of-39 on extra points. He also led the NCAA in field goal percentage among those with 13 or more attempts (96.3%) and finished third nationally with 2.00 field goals made per game. Also etched his name firmly forever into the hearts of Tiger fans young and old, thanks to his game-winning 27-yard field goal as time expired to beat rival Kansas, 41-39, in Kansas City's Arrowhead Stadium to end the regular season and give Mizzou its eighth win of the year.

2010 Michael Egnew, TE

After catching a grand total of seven balls combined in his first two years in the program, junior TE Michael Egnew burst onto the national scene in 2010 when he won consensus 1st-Team All-American honors, thanks to a 90-reception season that included 762 yards and five touchdowns. His 90 catches were most in the nation among all tight ends, and it tied former Tiger standout Chase Coffman (a 2008 consensus All-American tight end) for the MU single-season receptions record among tight ends. Egnew, who was a finalist for the John Mackey Tight End Award, became the third Tiger tight end to win consensus 1st-Team All-American honors in four years (2007-10).

Mizzou Coaching Legend Don Faurot

Don Faurot is widely recognized as the man who had the greatest impact on intercollegiate athletics at the University of Missouri.

Faurot's association with MU started when he was a young boy who'd sneak into old Rollins Field to watch the football Tigers play and practice. Later, he was a three-sport letterman at Missouri from 1922-24.

But it was as football coach and director of athletics that Faurot left his legacy on the University, and the sport. Even when he terminated his employment with the MU Athletic Department nearly 40 years ago, he never really found a way to retire, maintaining an office at the Tom Taylor Building where he spent several hours nearly every day. He was a regular attendee at football practice until his passing in 1995.

Faurot served as football coach from 1935 through 1956 — with three years out for Navy service during World War II. Aside from leading the Tigers out of debt and into football's big time, Faurot's tenure as football coach and director of athletics — a job he relinquished in 1967 — left MU athletics with its greatest legacy, the imprint of his integrity.

His prime contribution to football was his innovation of the Split-T formation at Mizzou in 1941. In the post-World War II era countless universities adopted the Faurot formation — and more than 60 years later, it is still in vogue today at all levels of football. Several of football's most notable formations — the Wishbone, Wingbone, Veer or I-attack and others — utilize Faurot's option play as their basic concept.

In 19 years as Tiger football coach, the Faurot record was 101 wins, 79 losses and 10 ties. His 1939 team, featuring all-American Paul Christman, won Faurot's first Big Six title and the Tigers' first modern-day bowl bid (Orange).

Though he inherited an insolvent department and a downtrodden football program at MU in 1935, Faurot left the department 32 years later virtually debt-free despite continual expansion and improvements. On a national level, his football teams of the late 1930s and early '40s projected the University of Missouri into the upper strata of collegiate competition.

He also accumulated a staff of coaches and administrators who spent long tenures at the University, and were honored by induction into their respective halls of fame — baseball coach John "Hi" Simmons, track coach Tom Botts, football coaches Dan Devine and Frank Broyles, sports information director Bill Callahan, and former head trainer Fred Wappel, among others.

Faurot was a member of the National Football Foundation Hall of Fame, the Missouri Sports Hall of Fame, the University of Missouri Intercollegiate Athletics Hall of Fame, the Orange Bowl Hall of Honor, the Blue-Gray Game Hall of Fame, past president of the American Football Coaches Association, and recipient of the Amos Alonzo Stagg Award for his distinguished service in the advancement of the best interests of football.

In 1972, the Tigers' football playing surface was officially named for him — something he said probably rated as his greatest personal honor. As a graduate student in agriculture in 1926, Faurot helped lay the sod on the field, prior to the opening of Memorial Stadium, that fall. In '95, he placed the final square of sod as MU successfully converted the stadium's floor back to natural grass.

Right up through 1994, Faurot was active as a talent procurer and coach for the annual Blue-Gray football game in Montgomery, Ala. He was secretary of the Missouri Sports Hall of Fame for many years, and was also the executive secretary of the Missouri Senior Golf Association. He spent a term after his retirement as assistant director in charge of special events for the MU Alumni Association.

Faurot's entire collegiate coaching experience, including nine years at Kirksville State Teachers College (now Truman State University) was spent within the state's borders. His career record was 169-92-13.

One of four brothers to win a football letter at MU, Don — the eldest — was a three-sport letterman in the early twenties. A lightweight fullback in football, he captained the basketball team, and was an infielder in baseball. He was born in Mountain Grove, Mo., on June 23, 1902. He passed away Oct. 19, 1995 in Columbia, the week of Homecoming. He was 93 years old.

If it's true that one must examine the past to appreciate the future, then there is no question that the legendary Dan Devine will always occupy a special place in the history of intercollegiate athletics at the University of Missouri.

For Devine is a part of both … football coach, and athletic director, during the 1960s when the Tigers were one of the most dominant teams in the nation; and athletic director for two separate terms during which he was involved in many decisions that will impact Mizzou's athletic future for many years to come.

Devine coached the Tiger football team during its most successful period. During the decade of the 1960s, Devine's winning percentage of .767 at Mizzou was the best of any college coach. He took the Tigers to six bowl games (winning four). In 13 seasons at Mizzou, he compiled a stellar 93-37-7 record. Throughout the '60s, Devine-coached Missouri teams ranked consistently among the nation's top-20 teams. Eight of his players were first-team All-America selections. When he left Mizzou after the 1970 season to coach the NFL's Green Bay Packers, Devine was the dean of Big Eight Conference coaches.

In the national polls, the 1960 Tiger team – Orange Bowl winners over Navy – achieved the highest niche, fifth in the final ratings, after having held the only number-one ranking in school history earlier in the season. The 1965 Tigers were ranked sixth nationally – and so was the '69 team. The 1969 Tigers were acclaimed by the Touchdown Club of Columbus (Ohio) as "the best major college football team playing the toughest schedule."

During his first term as MU's director of athletics (1967-70), Devine put into place plans for what resulted in the construction of the Hearnes Center, saw the construction of a new press box at Memorial Stadium, and hired Norm Stewart to resurrect what was then a sagging men's basketball program.

During Devine's second term as athletic director at MU (1992-94), his challenge was different – to increase fundraising for the athletic department, to improve MU athletic facilities, and to raise the spirits of the Tiger faithful.

The results will show that Devine was successful in every endeavor. Between 1992-94, he raised the funds necessary to enlarge the Tom Taylor Athletic Training Complex, a project that took less than one year to complete. He spearheaded the search committee that identified Joe Castiglione as his successor in the athletic director's chair, and hired Larry Smith to lead the MU football program – announcements that were made in the same day in December, 1993.

He took special pride in the accomplishments of the MU basketball team, often occupying a special seat on the Tiger bench during games.

In 1971, Devine became coach and general manager of the Green Bay Packers, where he was the NFL "Coach of the Year" after winning a Central Division championship in 1972 – Green Bay's only title for many years in the post-Vince Lombardi era.

He moved on as head coach at Notre Dame in 1975, and took the Fighting Irish to the national championship in 1977. During six years at NDU, he had a record of 53-16.

Devine returned to Arizona State in 1981, where he had begun as a college coach in 1955, to become executive director of the Sun Angel Foundation. Later, he served as director of community education and substance abuse prevention at ASU. In 1990, he received the Distinguished Arizonian Award, ASU's centennial medal, and was placed in the Arizona State Hall of Distinction.

With a 172-57-9 record overall, Devine was inducted into the National Football Foundation Hall of Fame in 1985. He was inducted into the State of Missouri Sports Hall of Fame in 1973, was a charter member of the MU Intercollegiate Athletics Hall of Fame in 1990, and also that year was selected by Tiger fans as the coach of MU's all-century team. He was later posthumously honored at Mizzou when the Tigers' indoor practice facility was permanently named the Daniel J. Devine Pavilion, in 1998.

In 1978, Devine's service as an Irish-American "to God and Country" was recognized with the prestigious John F. Kennedy Award. He served on the National Council on Alcoholism, and in 1987, was appointed by President Ronald Reagan to the White House Conference for a Drug-Free America.

Devine was first hired at Mizzou by Athletic Director Don Faurot in 1958, to replace Frank Broyles, who spent one year as MU's football coach. That was after Devine had compiled a 27-3-1 record in three sparkling seasons at Arizona State.

A Wisconsin native, Devine played football, basketball and baseball at Duluth State (now the University of Minnesota-Duluth), captaining the football and basketball teams. He enrolled there in 1941, but a tour of Army Air Force duty in World War II as a first lieutenant bombardier extended his graduation date until 1948.

Then followed two seasons of high school coaching at East Jordan, Mich., with a couple of unbeaten teams there undoubtedly providing a springboard for his jump to Michigan State, in 1950. There, he formulated much of his coaching philosophy during five years on the staffs of Clarence "Biggie" Munn and Hugh "Duffy" Daugherty. He earned a master's degree in guidance and counseling at Michigan State in 1952.

Devine was born Dec. 23, 1924 in Augusta, Wisc., and married the former Joanne Brookhart, with whom he parented seven children. Devine passed away in May of 2002 at the age of 77 in Phoenix, Ariz., after a year-long illness.

Mizzou's Trophy Games

MU-KU BASS DRUM — Issued to the winner of the Missouri-Kansas football game ... Originated in 1935 ... Trophy was originally conceived as Indian War Drum in nature by a couple of Mizzou alumni, since Osage Indians roamed the plains of Kansas and Missouri long before the state universities were founded ... Original intent was to stimulate new interest in longtime series that had dwindled during the Depression of the '30s and MU's all-time low in football victories ... Supposedly authentic Indian drum was purchased in a Kansas City pawn shop, and new drum was acquired prior to 1986 game ... Autographed originally on both drum heads by KU and MU alumni ... Tradition was temporarily forgotten for a few years but resumed on an annual basis in 1947 ... The first game ended in a scoreless tie.

MISSOURI-NEBRASKA BELL — Issued to the winner of the Missouri-Nebraska football game ... Originated in 1927 ... Laid aside in World War II years, and later resurrected in 1947 ... Bell was originally stolen from a church in Seward, Neb., by two Nebraska fraternities (Phi Delta Theta and Delta Tau Delta) who shared the same house ... When each fraternity moved to separate living quarters, they battled for possession of the bell each year in a specified athletic or academic contest ... When in 1927, Missouri proposed a suitable trophy be established for the MU-Nebraska football rivalry, the bell was suggested and adopted — engraved on one side with an "M" and on the other with an "N" ... At Mizzou, the bell is cared for by the QEBH Society, while the Nebraska caretaker is the Innocents Society of Nebraska ... Missouri won the first game, 7-6.

TIGER-SOONER PEACE PIPE — Ceremony of smoking the old pipe was inaugurated in 1929 by Chester M. Brewer, Mizzou's director of athletics, and by members of Mystical Seven, a University of Missouri honorary group ... The peace pipe was donated by Mr. R. L. Hill, an "M" man and former president of the Missouri student body ... Ceremony takes place during halves, with Mystical Seven representing Missouri, and a similar organization representing Oklahoma ... Missouri won the first game, 13-0.

TELEPHONE TROPHY — Issued to the winner of the Missouri-Iowa State football game ... Originated in 1959 ... The strangest of circumstances led to this trophy ... Prior to the 1959 game in Ames, a Missouri assistant coach put on his headset in the press box and got a big surprise — he could hear the Iowa State coaches chatting, since the wires were crossed and each side could hear the other ... Northwestern Bell of Ames donated the trophy, made of Alexander Graham Bell's chief invention ... Missouri won the first game, 14-0.

The Tiger Nickname

The nickname "Tigers," given to Mizzou's athletic teams, traces its origin to the Civil War period. At that time, plundering guerilla bands habitually raided small towns, and Columbia people constantly feared an attack. Such organizations as temporary "home guards" and vigilance companies banded together to fight off any possible forays.

The town's preparedness discouraged any guerilla activity and the protecting organization began to disband in 1854. However, it was rumored that a guerilla band, led by the notorious Bill Anderson, intended to sack the town. Quickly organized was an armed guard of Columbia citizens, who built a blockhouse and fortified the old courthouse in the center of town. This company was called "The Missouri Tigers."

The marauders never came. The reputation of the intrepid "Tigers" presumably traveled abroad, and Anderson's gang detoured around Columbia.

Soon after Missouri's first football team was organized in 1890, the athletic committee adopted the nickname "Tiger" in official recognition of those Civil War defenders.

Their spirit is now embodied in the MU mascot — "Truman the Tiger." Named for the Missouri-bred President of the United States — Harry S. Truman — the mascot performs at all MU football and basketball games, and many other athletic events. Truman also makes numerous civic appearances, at schools, hospitals, county fairs, etc.

Truman has been acclaimed "Best Mascot in the Nation" in national competition twice in recent years.

MU'S 1st HOMECOMING GAME

Legend says that the Homecoming tradition got its start at the University of Missouri in 1911, thanks to the vision and efforts of Chester L. Brewer, MU's Director of Athletics. Although Illinois staged a similar celebration in 1910, Missouri certainly was one of the first to hold a homecoming football game.

That year, the Missouri-Kansas game was to be played on a college campus for the first time. Previously, the game had been played in either Kansas City or St. Joseph, and Missouri trailed in the series by a 12-5-3 count.

Brewer wanted to add some spice to the season-ending game in Columbia, so he issued a plea to Mizzou alumni and especially to former Tiger football players to "Come Home" for the game. They did, with a record crowd of 9,000 overflowing Rollins Field.

With four minutes to play, and MU trailing by three, Tiger captain Glen Shuck booted a tying field goal from a difficult angle. Then, little Billy Blees caught a rampaging KU fullback in the open field in the final seconds to preserve the tie, and was carried off the field.

Hence, "Homecoming" was born. MU has a 57-37-5 record in Homecoming games. Not surprisingly, Kansas has been the most common Homecoming opponent 27 times — with MU leading in those games, 18-7-2, although the two clubs did not meet on Homecoming from 1960 until 2000.

ONLINE MEDIA CENTER

As part of our website, we have a Media Center that serves as a "one-stop shopping" destination for our friends in the media, including credentialing and access information, in addition to high-resolution image galleries for download.

To access the site, please visit www.mutigers.com, and click on "Media Center" on the left-hand side of the front page. This is a password-protected site for members of the media, and in order to protect the site, this information will not be given out unless requested directly by media. Please address requests to access to the site by sending an e-mail to Kevin Fletcher (fletcherk@missouri.edu).

MEDIA CREDENTIALS

Members of the media can apply for credentials online via the official website of the Mizzou Tigers – www.mutigers.com. Click on the "Media Center" link on the left-hand panel on the front page to access the password-protected site.

To apply for football credentials, scroll down the Media Center front page and click on the link that says "Online Football Credentialing -- 2011 Season". You will then be taken to the site where you register for credentials.

MEDIA WILL CALL

The Media Will Call window is located on the west side of Memorial Stadium, on the north side of the press box elevator tower at Gate 4W. Persons are required to provide proper identification to pick up credentials or tickets left there.

MEDIA PARKING

Members of the working media will be issued press parking permits on a single-game basis. The press parking area is Reactor Lot (across Providence Road southwest of the stadium). A shuttle service will run approximately two hours before the game to three hours following.

MEDIA MEALS – PLEASE NOTE

Due to budget constraints, we will no longer be serving free meals in the press box prior to games. Box lunches can be purchased for cost, and will be available in the press seating area approximately 1 ½ hours prior to kickoff. The cost will be roughly $5 to $7, and it is requested that those wishing to go with the box lunch make reservations in advance, by Noon Friday of the game. A limited number of box lunches might be available for purchase on game day, but the only way to guarantee a box lunch is to reserve ahead of time.

Those not interested in the box lunch, are free to bring their own food into the press box, or access will be provided to the Memorial Stadium concourse, where game day concessions stands are easily accessible.

PRESSBOX INTERNET ACCESS

Ethernet lines are available on a limited basis in the press working area on the fifth level of the pressbox. Media will also have access to wireless Internet service in 2011. Please contact the the Media Relations Office for arrangements.

PHOTOGRAPHERS

A photography service area is maintained in the south endzone on Faurot Field, at the west end of the Tigers' dressing facility. You must pick up an armband there to gain admittance to the sidelines.

Tripods are not allowed at field level for safety considerations. Monopods, however, are permissible.
